Authorization for inspection
The custodian bank is authorised to forward the furnished information to the share register.
I/We untertake to inform the above society of any changes in the information provided here.

Power of attorney for the transfer of ownership
I/We herewith authorize the company concerned to endorse or transfer my new and the previously registered share(s) in my/our name. The authorization applies in the event that a notification of sale or a request for entry in the share register is submitted to the company at a later date owing to a change in ownership of the shares. This power of attorney does not expire upon the death or incapacity of the applicant. It can only be legally revoked via a notification letter with simultaneous submission of any share certificates to the company.

Deferred printing of securities/securities in book entry form
I/We note that the instructions to transfer uncertificated registered shares, as well as instructions to print and to deliver certificates can only be issued via the custodian bank. The shares of some companies are available in uncertificated form only. In such cases, the shareholder has no right to the printing or to the delivery of such registered share certificates. However, the shareholder can request that the company concerned issue a confirmation of the shares registered in his/her name.
