

Global Health Research Innovation LoI – Application Form

---

Part A – Administrative information

Name of organisation

Street address

Postal code

City

Country

Name and title of responsible person

Telephone (incl. country code)

E-mail

Website

---

Part B – Project information

Describe your idea – make sure that it directly fits one of the topics as it could be disqualified if it does not.

1. Key message of your project (in a nutshell, i.e. 1–2 sentences)

2. Title for communication purposes (maximum 50 characters)

3. Project objective

4. What is the scientific justification for your project idea?

5. Why is your project an unconventional or new approach?

---

Part C – How will you show the project achievements?

6. Describe your research plan

7. How will you show that your project is promising?

8. What clear and relevant milestones will you achieve within the budget allocated and during the project period?

9. What is the project's outlook – if your research is successful during the project period, what will the next steps be?

10. Narrative budget

Appendices (to be sent as attachments in application)

- Budget
- Gantt chart with milestones and timelines
- CV of project responsible to document competence