

UBS clients in their own words.

“Alongside expertise, transparency and acceptance of responsibility, interaction with others has always been essential to me, both personally and in my business activities – and this is especially the case when things go wrong. My relationship with UBS to date has involved cooperation between people who know and understand one another in good times as well as in difficult situations, and I trust this will remain so in the future.”

Ueli Baur

Ueli Baur
UBS client since 1986

