Business object	Article 2 ¹ The purpose of the Corporation is the operation of a bank. Its scope of operations extends to all types of banking, financial, advisory, trading and service activities in Switzerland and abroad. ² The Corporation may establish branches and representative offices as well as banks, finance companies and other enterprises of any kind in Switzerland and abroad, hold equity interests in these companies, and conduct their management. ³ The Corporation is authorized to acquire, mortgage and sell real estate and building rights in Switzerland and abroad.
Duration	Article 3 The duration of the Corporation shall not be limited by time.

Section 2

Share capital

Share capital

Article 4

¹ The share capital of the Corporation is CHF 383,525,023.30 (three hundred and eighty-three million, five hundred and twenty-five thousand and twenty-three Swiss francs and thirty centimes), divided into 3,835,250,233 registered shares with a par value of CHF 0.10 each. The share capital is fully paid up.

² Registered shares may be converted into bearer shares and bearer shares into registered shares by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Conditional capital

Article 4a

Employee participation plan UBS AG

¹ The share capital may be increased by a maximum of CHF 14,551,099.20 through the issuance of a maximum of 145,510,992 fully paid registered shares with a par value of CHF 0.10 each upon exercise of employee options issued to employees and members of the management and of the Board of Directors of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. The pre-emptive rights and the advance subscription rights of the shareholders shall be excluded. The issuance of these options to employees and members of the management and of the Board of Directors of the Corporation and its subsidiaries will take place in accordance with the plan rules issued by the Board of Directors and its Compensation Committee. The acquisition of shares through the exercise of option rights as well as every subsequent transfer of these shares shall be subject to the registration requirements set forth in Article 5 of the Articles of Association.

² The share capital may be increased by a maximum of CHF 10,000,000 through the issuance of a maximum of 100,000,000 fully paid registered shares with a par value of CHF 0.10 per share through the exercise of warrants granted to the Swiss National Bank in connection with the loan granted by the Swiss National Bank to SNB StabFund Limited Partnership for Collective Investment.

The advance subscription right and the pre-emptive right of the shareholders shall be excluded in connection with the grant of the warrants to the Swiss National Bank. The Swiss National Bank as owner of the warrants shall be entitled to subscribe for the new shares. The conditions of the warrants shall be determined by the Board of Directors. The warrants shall be exercisable within a period of 12 years and may only be exercised if the Swiss National Bank incurs a loss under the loan to the SNB StabFund Limited Partnership for Collective Investment. The exercise price of the warrants shall be at least the par value of the newly issued shares.

The acquisition of shares through the exercise of the warrants and each subsequent transfer of the shares shall be subject to the registration requirements set forth in Article 5 of the Articles of Association.

³ The share capital may be increased in an amount not to exceed CHF 38,000,000 by the issuance of up to 380,000,000 fully paid registered shares with a nominal value of CHF 0.10 each through the voluntary or mandatory exercise of conversion rights and / or warrants granted in connection with the issuance of bonds or similar financial instruments by the Company or one of its group companies on national or international capital markets. The pre-emptive rights of the shareholders shall be excluded. The then current owners of conversion rights and / or warrants shall be entitled to subscribe for the new shares. The conditions of the conversion rights and / or warrants shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

The acquisition of shares through voluntary or mandatory exercise of conversion rights and / or warrants, as well as each subsequent transfer of the shares, shall be subject to the registration requirements set forth in Article 5 of the Articles of Association.

In connection with the issuance of convertible bonds or bonds with warrants or similar financial instruments, the Board of Directors shall be authorized to restrict or exclude the advance subscription rights of shareholders if such instrument is issued (i) on national or international capital markets or (ii) to one or more financial investors. If the advance subscription rights are restricted or excluded by the Board of Directors, the following shall apply: the issuance of such instrument shall be made at prevailing market conditions, and the new shares shall be issued pursuant to the relevant conditions of that financial instrument. Conversion rights may be exercised during a maximum 10-year period, and warrants may be exercised during a maximum 7-year period, in each case from the date of the respective issuance. The issuance of the new shares upon voluntary or mandatory exercise of conversion rights and / or warrants shall be made at conditions taking into account the market price of the shares and / or comparable instruments with a market price at the time of the issuance of the relevant financial instrument.

Share register and nominees

Article 5

¹ A share register is maintained for the registered shares, in which owners' and usufructuaries' family and given names are entered, with their complete address and nationality (or registered office for legal entities). Shares held in joint accounts may be registered jointly with voting rights, if all registered owners of the shares provide the declaration requested in paragraph 3 below.

² If the mailing address of a shareholder changes, the new address must be communicated to the Corporation. As long as this has not been done, all written communications will be sent to the address entered in the share register, this being valid according to the requirements of the law.

³ Those who acquire registered shares shall be entered in the share register as shareholders with voting rights if they expressly declare that they acquired these registered shares in their own names and for their own account. If the party acquiring the shares is not prepared to provide such a declaration, the Board of Directors may refuse to allow the shares to be entered with voting rights.

⁴ The restriction on registration under paragraph 3 above also applies to shares acquired by the exercise of preemptive, option or conversion rights.

⁶ The Board of Directors formulates general principles relating to the registration of fiduciaries / nominees and issues the necessary regulations to ensure compliance with the above provisions.

Form of shares

Article 6

¹ Registered shares of the Corporation will be, subject to paragraph 2, in the form of uncertificated securities (in the sense of the Swiss Code of Obligations) and intermediary-held securities (in the sense of the Intermediary-Held Securities Act).

² Following his registration in the share register, the shareholder may request the Corporation to issue a written statement in respect of his registered shares at any time; however, he has no entitlement to the printing and delivery of share certificates. In contrast, the Corporation may print and deliver share certificates for registered shares (single certificates, certificates representing multiples of shares or global certificates) at any time. It may withdraw registered shares issued as intermediary-held securities from the respective custody system. With the consent of the shareholder, the Corporation may cancel issued certificates which are returned to it without replacement.

Exercise of rights

² Voting rights and associated rights may only be exercised in relation to the Corporation by a party entered in the share register as having the right to vote.

Section 3
Corporate bodies
A. General Meeting of Shareholders

Authority

Article 8
The General Meeting of Shareholders is the Corporation’s supreme corporate body.

Types of General Meetings
a. Annual General Meeting

Article 9
The Annual General Meeting takes place every year within six months after the close of the financial year; the annual report and the report of the Auditors must be available for inspection by shareholders at the Corporation’s registered offices at least twenty days before the meeting.

b. Extraordinary General Meetings

Article 10
1 Extraordinary General Meetings are convened whenever the Board of Directors or the Auditors consider it necessary.
2 Such a meeting must also be convened if demanded by a resolution of the shareholders in General Meeting or by a written request from one or more shareholders, representing together at least one tenth of the share capital, specifying the items to be included on the agenda and the proposals to be put forward.

Convening

Article 11
1 The General Meeting shall be called by the Board of Directors, or if need be by the Statutory Auditors, at least twenty days before the meeting is to take place. The meeting is called by publishing a single notice in the publication of record designated by the Corporation. An invitation will be sent to all shareholders registered.
2 The notice to convene the General Meeting shall specify the agenda with the proposals of the Board of Directors and proposals from shareholders, and in the event of elections the names of the proposed candidates.

Placing of items on the agenda

Article 12

¹ Shareholders representing shares with an aggregate par value of CHF 62,500 may submit proposals for matters to be placed on the agenda for consideration by the Annual General Meeting, provided that their proposals are submitted in writing within the deadline published by the Corporation and include the actual motion(s) to be put forward.

² No resolutions may be passed concerning matters which have not been duly placed on the agenda, except on a motion put forward at the General Meeting to call an Extraordinary General Meeting or a motion for a special audit to be carried out.

Chairmanship, tellers, minutes

Article 13

¹ The Chairman of the Board of Directors or, if the Chairman cannot attend, a Vice Chairman or another member designated by the Board of Directors, shall preside over the General Meeting and appoint a secretary and the necessary tellers.

² Minutes are kept of the proceedings and must be signed by the presiding Officer and the Secretary.

Shareholder proxies

Article 14

¹ The Board of Directors issues procedural rules for participation and representation of shareholders at the General Meeting.

² A shareholder may only be represented at the General Meeting by his or her legal representative or under a written power of attorney by another shareholder eligible to vote, by a corporate proxy, by the independent proxy or by a custodial proxy.

³ The presiding Officer decides whether to recognize the power of attorney.

Voting right

Article 15

Each share conveys the right to cast one vote.

Resolutions, elections

Article 16

¹ Resolutions and elections are decided at the General Meeting by an absolute majority of the votes cast, excluding blank and invalid ballots, subject to the compulsory provisions of the law.

² A resolution to change Art. 18 of these Articles of Association, to remove one fourth or more of the members of the Board of Directors, or to delete or modify Art. 16 paragraph 2 of these Articles of Association, must receive at least two thirds of the votes represented.

⁴ In the case of written ballots, the presiding Officer may rule that only the ballots of those shareholders shall be collected who choose to abstain or to cast a negative vote, and that all other shares represented at the General Meeting at the time of the vote shall be counted in favour, in order to expedite the counting of the votes.

Powers

Article 17

The General Meeting has the following powers:

- a) To establish and amend the Articles of Association
- b) To elect the members of the Board of Directors and the Auditors
- c) To approve the annual report and the consolidated financial statements
- d) To approve the annual accounts and to decide upon the appropriation of the net profit shown in the balance sheet
- e) To give the members of the Board of Directors and of the Group Executive Board a discharge concerning their administration
- f) To take decisions on all matters reserved to the General Meeting by law or by the Articles of Association, or which are placed before it by the Board of Directors.
