Section 4. Payment of application amount (continued)

If you are advising us via facsimile in respect of instructions (including applications, withdrawal requests and switching requests) you should be aware of the following conditions:

- we will only process your facsimile instructions if it has been received by us in full. We are not responsible for any loss or delay that results from a transmission not being received by us. A facsimile receipt confirmation from the sender's facsimile machine is not evidence of receipt of the facsimile by us.
- we do not take responsibility for any fraudulently completed facsimile transactions and we will not compensate you for any losses. For example, you bear the risk that a fax may be sent by someone who knows your account details.
- in the event of fraud taking place, you agree to release, discharge and indemnify UBS Asset Management (Australia) Ltd from and against all actions, proceedings, accounts, claims, costs, demands, charges and expenses, losses and liabilities (however they arise) to the extent permitted by law, suffered by you or suffered by or brought against us, in respect of the facsimile instructions.

Section 6. Privacy

Keeping us informed

Our records about you are important. Please inform us in writing (must be signed by the authorised signatories) of any changes to details which you have given us. This may be a new postal address, a change of name or new financial institution account details for distribution payments.

We will send you written confirmation of any changes. Please quote your Investor Number when you contact us.

Collecting and using your information

We collect information for the following purposes:

- to process your application;
- to administer your investment and provide you with reports;
- to monitor and improve the quality of service provided to you; and
- to comply with regulatory or legal requirements, including the Corporations Act, the Proceeds of Crime Act, the Financial Transaction Reports Act, the Taxation Administration Act and the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act.

We also ask you for some personal details so that we, and our related companies, can keep in touch with you and tell you on an ongoing basis about our other products and services that could be useful to you. We may do this by telephone, electronic messages (eg. email), online and other means. Please contact us if you do not wish your details to be used for marketing purposes.

We may gather information about you from a third party. These include credit agencies, financial advisers, fund managers or intermediaries and spouses. We may also collect details of your interactions with us and our products and services (including from our records of any telephone, email and online interactions).

If you provide someone else's personal information to us, you must ensure that they first agree on the basis of this privacy section.

Disclosing your information

We exchange your personal information with your consultant/adviser and third parties appointed by your consultants/adviser if you complete section 10 of the Application Form, or if you request us to, and to any other authorised representative of yours (such as your accountant or lawyer) from time to time.

In addition, we may exchange personal information about you in the following circumstances:

- you consent to the disclosure;
- with any joint investor;
- with companies that provide services to us, to our related companies, to the Fund, or on our behalf (and our related companies may also exchange personal information with these companies) - for example administration, custody, investment management, technology, identity verification, auditing, registry, mailing or printing services; or
- where required or authorised by law, which may include disclosures to the Australian Taxation Office and other Government or regulatory bodies; or
- with organisations related to us whether in Australia or any overseas jurisdiction ('Related Companies').

In some cases, the types of organisations referred to above to whom we will disclose your personal information may be located in Switzerland, China, Hong Kong, India, New Zealand, Poland, Singapore, United Kingdom, United States of America and other countries.

Section 7. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA)

The Fund is registered as a Reporting Australian Financial Institution under the intergovernmental agreement entered into between the Australian and United States (US) governments in relation to FATCA on 28 April 2014 (IGA).

As a Reporting Australian Financial Institution, we will conduct due diligence on prospective investors in the Fund and on existing unit holders. Prospective investors (including existing unit holders applying for additional units) will need to provide us with certain information and/or documentation when applying for units. Existing unit holders will need to provide us with certain information and/or documentation on request. We will report information in respect of certain unit holders and their unit holdings in the Fund to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). Broadly, we will report to the ATO information in respect of unit holders who are:

- U.S. citizens or residents,
- certain types of U.S. entities, or
- certain types of non-U.S. entities that are controlled by one or more U.S. citizens or residents.

We are also required to report to the ATO the details of any payments we make to 'Non-participating Financial Institutions', as such term is defined in the IGA.

If you are an existing unit holder and you do not provide us with the required documentation upon request we may be required to report information in respect of you and your unit holding in the Fund to the ATO.

If you are a new investor (including an existing unit holder applying for additional units) and you do not provide us with the required information and/or documentation on request, we may not issue units to you. Alternatively, we may report information in respect of you and your unit holding in the Fund to the ATO.

In accordance with the IGA, the ATO will share information reported to it by Australian financial institutions with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

For further information in relation to how our due diligence and reporting obligations under the IGA may affect you, please consult your tax adviser.

Section 8. Acknowledgements and signatures

When you apply to invest, you (the applicant) are telling us:

- you have received, read and understood the current PDS,
- monies deposited are not associated with crime, money laundering or terrorism financing, nor will monies received from your account have any such association,

Direct Debit Request (DDR) Service Agreement

The following is your Direct Debit Service Agreement with National Australia Bank Limited (NAB). This agreement is designed to explain what your obligations are when undertaking a Direct Debit arrangement with us. It also details what our obligations are to you as your Direct Debit provider.

We recommend you keep this agreement in a safe place for future reference. It forms part of the terms and conditions of your Direct Debit Request and should be read in conjunction with your DDR form.

Definitions

account means the account held at your financial institution from which we are authorised to arrange for funds to be debited.

agreement means the Direct Debit Request Service Agreement between you and us.

banking day means a day other than a Saturday or Sunday or a public holiday listed throughout Australia.

debit day means the day that payment by you to us is due.

debit payment means a particular transaction where a debit is made.

direct debit request means the Direct Debit Request between us and you.

us or we means NAB (the Debit User) you have authorised by signing a direct debit request.

you means the customer who signed the Direct Debit Request.

your financial institution means the financial institution nominated by you on the DDR at which your account is maintained.

Debiting your account

- By signing a Direct Debit Request, you have authorised us to arrange for funds to be debited from your account. You should refer to the Direct Debit Request and this agreement for the terms of the arrangement between us and you.
- We will only arrange for funds to be debited from your account as authorised in the Direct Debit Request.
- If the debit day falls on a day that is not a banking day, we may direct your financial institution to debit your account on the following banking day. If you are unsure about which day your account has or will be debited you should ask your financial institution.

Amendments by us

We may vary any details of this agreement or a Direct Debit Request at any time by giving you a least 14 days written notice.

Amendments by you

You may change, stop or defer a debit payment, or terminate this agreement by providing at least 14 days notification by writing to:

UBS Asset Management (Australia) Limited

GPO Box 804

Melbourne VIC 3001

Fax: 1300 073 090 or +61 3 9977 5800

Your obligations

- It is your responsibility to ensure that there are sufficient cleared funds available in your account to allow a debit payment to be made in accordance with the Direct Debit Request.
- If there are insufficient cleared funds in your account to meet a debit payment
 - you may be charged a fee and/or interest by your financial institution;
 - you may also incur fees or charges imposed or incurred by us; and
 - you must arrange for the debit payment to be made by another method or arrange for sufficient cleared funds to be in your account by an agreed time so that we can process the debit payment.
- You should check your account statement to verify that the amounts debited from your account are correct.
- If we are liable to pay goods and services tax ("GST") on a supply made in connection with this agreement, then you agree to reimburse us.

Dispute

- If you believe that there has been an error in debiting your account, you should notify us directly by faxing us on 1300 073 090 and confirm that notice in writing with us as soon as possible so that we can resolve your query more quickly. Alternatively you can take it up with your financial institution directly.
- If we conclude as a result of our investigations that your account has been incorrectly debited we will respond to your query by arranging for your financial institution to adjust your account (including interest and charges) accordingly. We will also notify you in writing of the amount by which your account has been adjusted.
- If we conclude as a result of our investigations that your account has not been incorrectly debited, we will respond to your query by providing you with reasons and any evidence for this finding in writing.

Accounts

You should check:

- with your financial institution whether direct debiting is available from your account, as direct debiting is not available on all accounts offered by financial institutions;
- your account details which you have provided to us are correct by checking them against a recent account statement; and
- with your financial institution before completing the Direct Debit Request if you have any queries about how to complete the Direct Debit Request.

Confidentiality

- We will keep any information (including your account details) in your Direct Debit Request confidential. We will make reasonable efforts to keep any such information that we have about you secure and to ensure that any of our employees or agents who have access to information about you do not make any unauthorised use, modification, reproduction or disclosure of that information.
- We will only disclose information that we have about you:
 - to the extent specifically required by law; or
 - for the purposes of this agreement (including disclosing information in connection with any query or claim).

Notice

- If you wish to notify us in writing about anything relating to this agreement, you should write to UBS Asset Management (Australia) Ltd, Level 16, Chifley Tower, 2 Chifley Square NSW 2000.
- We will notify you by sending a notice in the ordinary post to the address you have given us in the Direct Debit Request.
- Any notice will be deemed to have been received on the third banking day after posting.

Facsimile indemnity

If you are advising us via facsimile in respect of instructions (including applications, withdrawal requests and switching requests) you should be aware of the following conditions:

We will only process your facsimile instructions if it has been received by us in full. We are not responsible for any loss or delay that results from a transmission not being received by us. A facsimile receipt confirmation from the sender's facsimile machine is not evidence of receipt of the facsimile by us.

We do not take responsibility for any fraudulently completed facsimile transactions and we will not compensate you for any losses. For example, you bear the risk that a fax may be sent by someone who knows your account details.

In the event of fraud taking place, you agree to release, discharge and indemnify UBS Asset Management (Australia) Ltd from and against all actions, proceedings, accounts, claims, costs, demands, charges and expenses, losses and liabilities (however they arise) to the extent permitted by law, suffered by you or suffered by or brought against us, in respect of the facsimile instructions.

Keeping us informed

Our records about you are important. Please inform us in writing (must be signed by the authorised signatories) of any changes to details which you have given us. This may be a new postal address, a change of name or new financial institution account details for distribution payments.

We will send you written confirmation of any changes. Please quote your Investor Number when you contact us.

Collecting and using your information

We collect information for the following purposes:

- to process your application;
- to administer your investment and provide you with reports;
- to monitor and improve the quality of service provided to you; and
- to comply with regulatory or legal requirements, including the Corporations Act, the Proceeds of Crime Act, the Financial Transaction Reports Act, the Taxation Administration Act and the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act.

We also ask you for some personal details so that we, and our related companies, can keep in touch with you and tell you on an ongoing basis about our other products and services that could be useful to you. We may do this by telephone, electronic messages (eg. email), online and other means. Please contact us if you do not wish your details to be used for marketing purposes.

We may gather information about you from a third party. These include credit agencies, financial advisers, fund managers or intermediaries and spouses. We may also collect details of your interactions with us and our products and services (including from our records of any telephone, email and online interactions).

If you provide someone else's personal information to us, you must ensure that they first agree on the basis of this privacy section.

Disclosing your information

We exchange your personal information with your consultant/adviser and third parties appointed by your consultants/adviser if you complete section 15 of the Application Form, or if you request us to, and to any other authorised representative of yours (such as your accountant or lawyer) from time to time. In addition, we may exchange personal information about you in the following circumstances:

- you consent to the disclosure;
- with any joint investor;
- with companies that provide services to us, to our related companies, to the Fund, or on our behalf (and our related companies may also exchange personal information with these companies) - for example administration, custody, investment management, technology, identity verification, auditing, registry, mailing or printing services; or

- where required or authorised by law, which may include disclosures to the Australian Taxation Office and other Government or regulatory bodies; or
- with organisations related to us such as UBS Wealth Management Australia Ltd and its related bodies corporate, whether in Australia or any overseas jurisdiction ('Related Companies').

In some cases, the types of organisations referred to above to whom we will disclose your personal information may be located in Switzerland, China, Hong Kong, India, New Zealand, Poland, Singapore, United Kingdom, United States of America and other countries.

FATCA

The Fund is registered as a Reporting Australian Financial Institution under the intergovernmental agreement entered into between the Australian and U.S. governments in relation to FATCA on 28 April 2014 ('IGA').

As a Reporting Australian Financial Institution, we will conduct due diligence on prospective investors in the Fund and on existing unit holders. Prospective investors (including existing unit holders applying for additional units) will need to provide us with certain information and/or documentation when applying for units. Existing unit holders will need to provide us with certain information and/or documentation on request.

We will report information in respect of certain unit holders and their unit holdings in the Fund to the Australian Taxation Office ('ATO'). Broadly, we will report to the ATO information in respect of unit holders who are:

- U.S. citizens or residents,
- certain types of U.S. entities, or
- certain types of non-U.S. entities that are controlled by one or more U.S. citizens or residents.

We are also required to report to the ATO the details of any payments we make to "Nonparticipating Financial Institutions", as such term is defined in the IGA.

If you are an existing unit holder and you do not provide us with the required documentation upon request we may be required to report information in respect of you and your unit holding in the Fund to the ATO.

If you are a new investor (including an existing unit holder applying for additional units) and you do not provide us with the required information and/or documentation on request, we may not issue units to you. Alternatively, we may report information in respect of you and your unit holding in the Fund to the ATO.

In accordance with the IGA, the ATO will share information reported to it by Australian financial institutions with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

For further information in relation to how our due diligence and reporting obligations under the IGA may affect you, please consult your tax adviser.
