Section 4. Facsimile indemnity

If you are advising us via facsimile in respect of instructions (including applications, withdrawal requests and switching requests) you should be aware of the following conditions:

- we will only process your facsimile instructions if it has been received by us in full. We are not responsible for any loss or delay that results from a transmission not being received by us. A facsimile receipt confirmation from the sender's facsimile machine is not evidence of receipt of the facsimile by us.

- we do not take responsibility for any fraudulently completed facsimile transactions and we will not compensate you for any losses. For example, you bear the risk that a fax may be sent by someone who knows your account details.
- in the event of fraud taking place, you agree to release, discharge and indemnify UBS Asset Management (Australia) Ltd from and against all actions, proceedings, accounts, claims, costs, demands, charges and expenses, losses and liabilities (however they arise) to the extent permitted by law, suffered by you or suffered by or brought against us, in respect of the facsimile instructions.

Section 5. Privacy

Keeping us informed

Our records about you are important. Please inform us in writing (must be signed by the authorised signatories) of any changes to details which you have given us. This may be a new postal address, a change of name or new financial institution account details for distribution payments.

We will send you written confirmation of any changes. Please quote your Investor Number when you contact us.

Collecting and using your information

We collect information for the following purposes:

- to process your application;
- to administer your investment and provide you with reports;
- to monitor and improve the quality of service provided to you; and
- to comply with regulatory or legal requirements, including the Corporations Act, the Proceeds of Crime Act, the Financial Transaction Reports Act, the Taxation Administration Act and the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act.

We also ask you for some personal details so that we, and our related companies, can keep in touch with you and tell you on an ongoing basis about our other products and services that could be useful to you. We may do this by telephone, electronic messages (eg. email), online and other means. Please contact us if you do not wish your details to be used for marketing purposes.

We may gather information about you from a third party. These include credit agencies, financial advisers, fund managers or intermediaries and spouses. We may also collect details of your interactions with us and our products and services (including from our records of any telephone, email and online interactions).

If you provide someone else's personal information to us, you must ensure that they first agree on the basis of this privacy section.

Disclosing your information

We exchange your personal information with your consultant/ adviser and third parties appointed by your consultants/adviser if you complete section 10 of the Application Form, or if you request us to, and to any other authorised representative of yours (such as your accountant or lawyer) from time to time.

In addition, we may exchange personal information about you in the following circumstances:

- you consent to the disclosure;
- with any joint investor;
- with companies that provide services to us, to our related companies, to the Fund, or on our behalf (and our related companies may also exchange personal information with these companies) - for example administration, custody, investment management, technology, identity verification, auditing, registry, mailing or printing services; or
- where required or authorised by law, which may include disclosures to the Australian Taxation Office and other Government or regulatory bodies; or
- with organisations related to us whether in Australia or any overseas jurisdiction ('Related Companies').

In some cases, the types of organisations referred to above to whom we will disclose your personal information may be located in Switzerland, China, Hong Kong, India, New Zealand, Poland, Singapore, United Kingdom, United States of America and other countries.

Section 6. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA)

The Fund is registered as a Reporting Australian Financial Institution under the intergovernmental agreement entered into between the Australian and United States (US) governments in relation to FATCA on 28 April 2014 (IGA).

As a Reporting Australian Financial Institution, we will conduct due diligence on prospective investors in the Fund and on existing unit holders. Prospective investors (including existing unit holders applying for additional units) will need to provide us with certain information and/or documentation when applying for units. Existing unit holders will need to provide us with certain information and/or documentation on request. We will report information in respect of certain unit holders and their unit holdings in the Fund to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

Broadly, we will report to the ATO information in respect of unit holders who are:

- U.S. citizens or residents,
- certain types of U.S. entities, or
- certain types of non-U.S. entities that are controlled by one or more U.S. citizens or residents.

We are also required to report to the ATO the details of any payments we make to 'Non-participating Financial Institutions', as such term is defined in the IGA.

If you are an existing unit holder and you do not provide us with the required documentation upon request we may be required to report information in respect of you and your unit holding in the Fund to the ATO.

If you are a new investor (including an existing unit holder applying for additional units) and you do not provide us with the required information and/or documentation on request, we may not issue units to you. Alternatively, we may report information in respect of you and your unit holding in the Fund to the ATO.

In accordance with the IGA, the ATO will share information reported to it by Australian financial institutions with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

For further information in relation to how our due diligence and reporting obligations under the IGA may affect you, please consult your tax adviser.

Section 7. Existing instructions

If you tick this box, you confirm that your existing instructions (reporting preferences and financial institution account details) continue to apply to your investment in the Fund(s) you are switching to.

If you wish to change your instructions, please complete the 'Change of details' form, available at www.ubs.com/au/en/asset_management/prices/forms.html or on request from UBS Asset Management (Australia) Ltd.

Section 8. Acknowledgments and signatures

By completing and signing this form, you are telling us:

- you have received, read and understood the current PDS,
- monies deposited are not associated with crime, money laundering or terrorism financing, nor will monies received from your account have any such association,
- you are not bankrupt or a minor, and you agree to be bound by the constitution of the Fund and the PDS as supplemented, replaced or re-issued from time to time.
