

Michael Baldinger

Head of Sustainable and Impact Investing, UBS Asset Management
Managing Director

Years of investment
industry experience: 31

Education: Zurich Business
School – Business
Management (Switzerland);
Harvard Business School –
Executive Programs (US),
MA

Michael joined UBS Asset Management (UBS-AM) as Head of Sustainable and Impact Investing (SI) in 2016. In this role, he is responsible for establishing a world-class Sustainable and Impact Investing business across asset classes.

At UBS-AM, Michael leads a team of investment professionals focused on research and stewardship, client solutions and business strategy.

Michael chairs the SI Management Committee which oversees the sustainable practices across the UBS-AM business and ensures coordination with the UBS Group Strategy for sustainable investing. He is also a member of the UBS-AM Investments Management Committee, UBS-AM Stewardship Committee, UBS in society client working group as well as on the GWM Steering Committee. He represents UBS Group as a Board Member of Swiss Sustainable Finance.

Michael has a wealth of experience, with 30 years in the financial services industry and a decade as a sustainability investor.

Before joining UBS, Michael served as CEO and Chairman of the Executive Committee at RobecoSAM from 2011 to 2016. He joined the firm in 2009.

Prior to RobecoSAM, Michael was a Managing Director at Credit Suisse Asset Management, where he was Head of Distribution for the Americas from 2005 to 2008. Michael also held Equity Sales roles at Bear Stearns and Deutsche Bank from 1996 to 2005.

Michael began his career at Credit Suisse/CS First Boston in 1986 in Zurich.

Michael holds Series 7 and 63 licenses.

Note: As of March 2020