

Rest assured at UBS

How we safeguard your cash

UBS Financial Services Inc. (“UBS” or “we”) offers a series of safeguards to provide greater protection for your cash, including deposit sweep programs that automatically deposit free available balances in your UBS accounts at banks insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”). UBS Bank USA (“Bank USA”), our affiliate bank, is considered well-capitalized. If you maintain deposits at Bank USA, you may feel confidence in the protection provided by the FDIC and the capital strength of Bank USA.

About FDIC insurance

Insurance through the FDIC plays a big role in the protection of your cash. Deposits at Bank USA and other FDIC-insured banks are eligible for deposit insurance up to $250,000 (including principal and accrued interest) per depositor for each insurable ownership capacity in which the deposit is held. At Bank USA, FDIC insurance covers the balances in your Deposit Sweeps, any UBS Bank USA Core Savings (“UBS Core Savings”) deposits you hold and any Bank USA certificates of deposit (“CDs”) you own (collectively, “Bank USA Deposits”). Examples of insurable ownership capacities include single accounts, joint accounts, retirement accounts, trust accounts, business accounts and employee benefit plan accounts.

For purposes of calculating the maximum FDIC insurance, the sum of all your deposits held in the same insurable ownership capacity at the same bank are combined. At Bank USA, all your Bank USA Deposits are aggregated together with any deposits you hold at Bank USA through participation in sweep programs offered by third-party broker-dealers to determine your FDIC insurance coverage. While you are responsible for monitoring your level of FDIC insurance, your Financial Advisor can help. You can also use the FDIC Calculator from the FDIC (here) to learn more about the FDIC coverage.

FDIC deposit insurance only covers the failure of an insured bank. UBS is not an FDIC-insured bank. Certain conditions must be satisfied for deposit insurance coverage to pass through to clients’ funds placed by UBS at FDIC-insured banks.

UBS Deposit Sweep Programs

UBS offers two deposit sweep programs: UBS Bank Sweep Programs and the UBS FDIC-Insured Deposit Program (collectively, "Deposit Sweeps"). Balances in deposit accounts in Deposit Sweeps are eligible for FDIC insurance. For many clients, available cash balances in their UBS securities accounts are swept daily to these two programs. Generally, most retail and business accounts (including Individual Retirement Accounts, UBS Business Services Accounts BSAs, and individual and joint UBS Resource Management Accounts) sweep to bank deposit accounts through a UBS Bank Sweep Program. Retail trust accounts sweep to the UBS FDIC-Insured Deposit Program.

Please note that balances in Sweep Deposits are not eligible for protection by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC"). Certain UBS accounts, such as 403(b) plans, qualified pooled plans and corporate cash management accounts will sweep into a money market fund ("MMF Sweep"). MMF Sweeps are not insured by the FDIC but are covered by SIPC.

UBS Bank Sweep Programs

There are three sub-programs available: the UBS Deposit Account Sweep Program ("Deposit Program"), the UBS Business Account Sweep Program ("Business Program"), and the UBS Insured Sweep Program ("UBS-ISP"). The program available to you will be based upon your eligibility.

If you are enrolled in the Deposit Program or the Business Program, free cash balances will be swept daily to a deposit account at Bank USA without limit.

If you are enrolled in the UBS-ISP, free cash balances in your UBS account will be swept daily to a deposit account at Bank USA up to $249,000 or $498,000 for joint accounts ("Deposit Limit"). Any additional free cash balances will be swept up to the Deposit Limit at each FDIC-insured bank ("Program Bank") listed at ubs.com/bankprioritylists for UBS-ISP ("UBS-ISP Priority List"), in the order in which the Program Banks appear on the UBS-ISP Priority List. Bank USA will be the first bank on the UBS-ISP Priority List. Once the Deposit Limit has been reached at each Program Bank, any excess funds will be swept to Bank USA without limit. The number of Program Banks in the UBS-ISP Priority List, and therefore, potential FDIC insurance coverage available to you in the UBS-ISP, are subject to change at any time.

UBS FDIC-insured Deposit Program

Retail trust accounts are eligible for the UBS FDIC-Insured Deposit Program, in which free cash balances in the UBS accounts will be swept daily to a deposit account at Bank USA up to the Deposit Limit. Any additional free cash balances will be swept up to the Deposit Limit at each Program Bank listed at ubs.com/bankprioritylists for the UBS FDIC-Insured Deposit Program ("FDIC-Insured Deposit Program Priority List"), in the order in which the Program Banks appear on the FDIC-Insured Deposit Program Priority List. Bank USA will be the first bank on the FDIC-Insured Deposit Program Priority List. Once the Deposit Limit has been reached at each Program Bank, any excess funds will be swept to Bank USA without limit. The number of banks in the FDIC-Insured Deposit Program Priority List, and therefore, potential FDIC insurance coverage available to you in the FDIC-Insured Deposit Program, are subject to change at any time.

Risks for cash held at Bank USA

Like all Program Banks in the Deposit Sweeps, Bank USA must remain well-capitalized. Any banks in the UBS-ISP Priority List or the FDIC-Insured Deposit Program Priority List that are not well-capitalized are removed from the program. Under federal law uninsured depositors have a preference over the claims of all other creditors even if a bank were to fail. Cash held at Bank USA above the FDIC limit carries limited credit risk due to the high credit quality of Bank USA.

Frequently Asked Questions

- I'm concerned about how the financial markets may affect my Bank USA account.
 - Deposit Sweeps and UBS Core Savings have no direct market risk.
 - CDs have no market risk if held to maturity. However, if you are able to sell your CD prior to maturity, the price you receive will reflect prevailing market conditions and your sales proceeds may be less than the amount you paid for your CD.
- Will I be able to access my cash?
 - Deposit Sweeps and UBS Core Savings deposits have minimal liquidity risk based on the strength of Bank USA's CET1 capital ratio but may have terms and conditions for withdrawals.
 - CDs are most suitable for purchasing and holding to maturity. UBS may maintain a secondary market in the CDs but is not obligated to do so, and any price will reflect prevailing market conditions as discussed above.
