When you visit a UBS website, that website will contain additional information about how we use your information while you are visiting that website; and
- in some cases, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Personal Information that we collect will also include Personal Sensitive Information (information that, once leaked or illegally used, may lead to personal discrimination or material harm on natural persons' dignity of human personality or harm to personal or property security) such as number of ID certificate, nationality, financial information, including payment and transaction records and information relating to your assets, bank account, communication records and contents, Online Identity Information, property information, credit information, whereabouts, accommodation information, health and physiological information, transaction information; and information about alleged or proven criminal offences or convictions.

We may use cookies, tracking technologies and other means (e.g., web beacons, pixels, gifs, tags, unique identifiers) to collect and process the above information from different channels, including email, and devices that you use to interact with us.

For our usage of cookies and other tracking technologies in relation to UBS websites please also refer to the UBS Website and Cookie Notice available at <https://www.ubs.com/global/en/legal/privacy.html>.

We may use Personal Information for analytics and measurement (incl. machine learning) to process the above information, including profiling based on the processing of your Personal Information, for instance by looking at information we obtain via cookies and tracking technologies.

In some cases, we collect this information from public registers (which, depending on the product or service you receive and the country of the UBS entity with which you have a contractual relationship, may include beneficial ownership and other registers), public administration or other third-party or public sources, such as wealth screening services, credit reference agencies, fraud prevention agencies, intermediaries that facilitate data portability, and other UBS Group entities.

We might also ask you for certain of the above Personal Information types in relation to your business relationship, such as your additional account holders, business partners (including other shareholders, or beneficial owners), dependants or family members, representatives or agents.

Where you are an institutional or corporate client or investor, we may also ask you for information about your directors, representatives, employees or shareholders or beneficial owner. Before providing UBS with this information, you should provide a copy of this notice to those individuals.

3 For which purposes do we process your Personal Information and what legal basis do we rely on?

3.1 Purposes of processing

We always process your Personal Information for a specific purpose and only process the Personal Information which is relevant to achieve that purpose. In particular, we process Personal Information, within applicable legal limitations, for the following purposes:

- a) Client Onboarding
 - to verify your identity and assess your application (including the need for guarantees or other securitisation tools if you apply for credit). For legal and regulatory compliance checks (for example, to comply with anti-money laundering regulations, and prevent fraud), please see Section e) below.
- b) Client Relationship Management
 - to manage our relationship with you, including communicating with you in relation to the products and services you obtain from us and from our business partners, handling customer service-related queries and complaints, facilitating debt recovery activities, making decisions regarding credit or your identity, tracing your whereabouts, and closing your account (in accordance with applicable law) if it remains dormant and we are unable to contact you after a period of time;
 - to help us to learn more about you as a client, your preferences on the products and services you receive, and other products and services, including those offered by us, UBS Group entities, and our business partners, you may be interested in receiving, including profiling based on the processing of your Personal Information, for instance by looking at the types of applications, platform, products and services that you use from us, information we obtain via tracking technology and how you like to be contacted;
 - to collect and analyse your individualized and personal or anonymous and group-based activity and potential interests in the use of our products and services, of UBS websites, our applications for mobile devices and UBS platforms, multimedia portals and social networks.
- c) Product implementation and execution
 - to provide products and services to you and ensuring their proper execution, for instance by ensuring that we can identify you and make payments to and from your accounts in accordance with your instructions and the product terms;
 - to perform underwriting.
- d) Engaging in prospecting and business development and / or protecting and enhancing the UBS brand
 - to evaluate whether and how UBS may offer products, services and events, including those offered by us, UBS Group entities, and our other business partners, that may be of interest to you;
 - to provide individualised and personal or anonymous and group-based matching of offers on UBS websites, on our applications for mobile devices, on UBS platforms, on multimedia portals and social networks and other UBS products and services you may use;
 - to contact you for direct marketing purposes about products and services we think will be of interest to you, including those offered by us, UBS Group entities, and our other business partners, and facilitating competitions and promotions.
- e) Compliance and Risk Management and / or Crime Prevention, Detection and Investigation
 - to carry out legal and regulatory compliance checks as part of the onboarding process, including to comply with anti-money laundering regulations and fraud prevention;
 - to meet our on-going regulatory and compliance obligations (e.g., laws of the financial sector, anti-money laundering and tax laws), including in relation to recording and monitoring communications, apply a risk classification to ongoing business relationships, disclosures to tax authorities, financial service regulators and other regulatory, judicial and governmental bodies or in proceedings and investigating or preventing crime;

- to receive and handle complaints, requests or reports from you or third parties made to designated units within UBS or the UBS Group;
 - to reply to any actual or potential proceedings, requests or the inquiries of a public or judicial authority;
 - to prevent and detect crime, including fraud or criminal activity, misuses of our products or services as well as the security of our IT systems, architecture and networks.
- f) Supporting, Enhancing and Maintaining UBS's technology
- to take steps to improve our products and services and our use of technology, including testing and upgrading of systems and processes, and conducting market research to understand how to improve of our existing products and services or learn about other products and services we can provide;
 - to analyse the results of our marketing activities to measure their effectiveness and relevance of our campaigns.
- g) Other purposes:
- (1) for the UBS Group's prudent operational management (including credit and risk management, technological support services, reporting, insurance, audit, systems and products training and similar administrative purposes);
 - (2) to enable a transfer, merger or disposal to a potential buyer, transferee, merger partner or seller and their advisers in connection with an actual or potential transfer, merger or disposal of part or all of UBS's business or assets, or any associated rights or interests, or to acquire a business or enter into a merger with it;
 - (3) to collect data to ensure the security of buildings, safety of staff and visitors, as well as property and information located, stored on or accessible from the premises, to prevent, and if necessary investigate, unauthorized access to secure premises (e.g., maintaining building access logs and CCTV system images to prevent, detect and investigate a theft of equipment or asset owned by UBS, visitor or staff, or threats to the safety of personnel working at the office);
 - (4) to undertake transactional and statistical analysis, and related research;
 - (5) exercise our duties and/or rights vis-à-vis you or third parties.

We use both automated (including artificial intelligence) and manual methods to process your Personal Data for these purposes. Our automated methods often are related to and supported by our manual methods. For example, our artificial intelligence systems may analyse your data to identify patterns and trends, which are usually manually reviewed and interpreted by humans.

3.2 Basis for the processing of Personal Information

Depending on the purpose of the processing activity (see Section 3.1), the legal basis for the processing of your Personal Information will be one of the following:

- necessary for taking steps to enter into or executing a contract with you for the services or products you request, or for carrying out our obligations under such a contract, such as when we use your data for some of the purposes in Section 3.1 a), b) and c) above;
- necessary to meet our legal or regulatory responsibilities, including when we conduct the legal and regulatory compliance checks and make the disclosures to authorities, regulators and government bodies referred to in Section 3.1 e) and g) (2) above;
- processing relates to the personal information made publicly available by you or otherwise lawfully made publicly available within a reasonable scope and in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Law (PIPL);
- where we have obtained your prior consent, or where we have obtained your separate consent (where required by law) such as in the case of transferring Personal Information cross-border, providing Personal

Information to third party personal information processors (as defined by China's Personal Information Protection Law), and processing sensitive Personal Information.

Where the Personal Information we collect from you is needed to meet our legal or regulatory obligations or enter into an agreement with you, if we cannot collect this Personal Information there is a possibility we may be unable to on-board you as a client or provide products or services to you (in which case we will inform you accordingly).

4 How do we protect Personal Information?

All UBS employees accessing Personal Information must comply with the internal rules and processes in relation to the processing of Personal Information to protect them and to ensure their confidentiality.

UBS and the UBS Group have implemented adequate technical and organisational measures to protect your Personal Information against unauthorised, accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, misuse, disclosure or access and against all other unlawful forms of processing.

5 Who has access to Personal Information and with whom are they shared?

5.1 Within the UBS Group

We may share Personal Information with other UBS Group companies in order to ensure a consistently high service standard across our group, and to provide services and products to you.

We will only share Personal Information necessary for UBS group's internal operations, and such recipient will also be subject to confidentiality obligations.

5.2 Outside UBS and the UBS Group

5.2.1 Third Parties

We share Personal Information with other credit and financial services institutions, comparable institutions and to our professional advisers and consultants to perform the business relationship with you. In particular, when providing products and services to you, we will share Personal Information with persons acting on your behalf or otherwise involved (depending on the type of product or service you receive from us), including, where relevant the following types of companies:

- issuers of securities (including third parties appointed by them) in which you have an interest, where such securities are held by third party banks for you;
- payment recipients, beneficiaries, account nominees, intermediaries, correspondent and agent banks (including custodian banks);
- clearing houses, and clearing or settlement systems and specialised payment companies or institutions such as SWIFT;
- market counterparties, upstream withholding agents, swap or trade repositories, stock exchanges;
- other financial institutions, credit reference agencies or credit bureaus (for the purposes of obtaining or providing credit references);
- Any third-party product providers/issuers which may provide banking, securities, financial, wealth management and/or asset management services to you, e.g., third party banks, fund houses, trust companies, private asset managers, insurance companies etc;
- any introducing broker to whom we provide introductions or referrals, and
- lawyers, auditors and accountants providing legal, audit, consultancy or accounting services to us.

5.2.2 Service Providers

In some instances, we also share Personal Information with our suppliers, who are contractually bound to confidentiality, such as IT hardware, software and outsourcing providers, logistics, mail, courier, printing services and storage providers, marketing and communication providers, facility management companies, market data service providers, transportation and travel management providers and others. When we do so we take steps to ensure they meet our data security standards, so that your Personal Information remains secure.

Where UBS transfers your data to service providers processing data on UBS behalf, we take steps to ensure they meet our data security standards, so that your Personal Information remains secure. Third party service providers are thereby mandated to comply with a list of technical and organisational security measures, irrespective of their location, including measures relating to: (i) information security management; (ii) information security risk assessment and (iii) information security measures (e.g., physical controls; logical access controls; malware and hacking protection; data encryption measures; backup and recovery management measures).

5.2.3 Public or regulatory authorities

If required from time to time, we disclose Personal Information to public authorities, regulators or governmental bodies, or courts or party to proceedings where we are required to disclose information by applicable law or regulation, under a code of practice or conduct, at their request.

5.2.4 Other

- A potential buyer, transferee, merger partner or seller and their advisers in connection with an actual or potential transfer or merger of part or all of UBS's business or assets, or any associated rights or interests, or to acquire a business or enter into a merger with it;
- Any legitimate recipient required by applicable laws or regulations.

5.3 Data Transfers to other countries

The Personal Information transferred within, or outside UBS and the UBS Group as set out in Sections 5.1 and 5.2, is in some cases also processed in other countries. We only transfer your Personal Information abroad to countries which are considered to provide an adequate level of data protection, or in the absence of such legislation that guarantees adequate protection, based on appropriate safeguards (e.g., standard contractual clauses adopted by the European Commission to the extent recognized by the competent Data Protection Authority or another statutory exemption) provided by local applicable law.

A list of the countries in which UBS and the UBS Group operate can be found at: <https://www.ubs.com/global/en/our-firm/locations.html>.

6 How long do we store your data?

We will only retain Personal Information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it was collected or to comply with legal, regulatory or internal policy requirements. To help us do this, we apply criteria to determine the appropriate periods for retaining your Personal Information depending on its purpose.

We will keep your personal data for as long as you are our customer to allow us to provide you with the services and to meet our regulatory requirements, as specified in this document.

Once our relationship with you has ended (for example, after your account has closed or following a transaction such as a payment, your application for a product is refused, or you decide not to go ahead with an application), we will only keep your personal data for a period that is appropriate, which in many cases is up to 20 years after your account closes or following a transaction such as a payment. The period we keep information for is often linked to the amount of time available to bring a legal claim, required by law or regulations, or for compliance and risk management.

We will keep your personal data after this time if we have to do so by law, if there are existing claims or complaints that will reasonably require us to keep your information, or for regulatory reasons. If we do need to keep your information for a longer period, we will continue to protect that information. However, if you wish to have your Personal Data removed from our databases, you can make a request as described below, which we will review as set out therein.

7 What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

7.1 Your rights

You have a right to request explanation of processing rules, to consult and to copy your Personal Information that we process. If you believe that any information we hold about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may also request the correction of your Personal Information. You also have the right to:

- be informed on the processing of your Personal Information

- request the erasure of your Personal Information;
- restrict or prohibit the processing of your personal information
- refuse to receive any commercial advertisements based on your Personal Information;
- request for a copy of your Personal Information and, if technically feasible, to directly transmit a copy of your Personal Information to a third party designated by you;
- request information about consent choices and the consequences of refusing consent where UBS seeks to rely on your consent as a lawful ground for processing your Personal Information; and
- withdraw your consent where UBS obtained your consent to process Personal Information (without this withdrawal affecting the lawfulness of any processing that took place prior to the withdrawal).

In certain circumstances UBS may process your Personal Information through automated decision-making. Where this takes place, you will be informed of such automated decision-making that uses your Personal Information and be given information on criteria and procedures applied. You can request an explanation about the automated decision making carried out and request that a natural person reviews the related decision where such a decision is exclusively based on such processing.

UBS will honour such requests, withdrawal or objection as required under applicable data protection rules but these rights are not absolute: they do not always apply and exemptions may be engaged. We will usually, in response to a request, ask you to verify your identity and/or provide information that helps us to understand your request better. If we do not comply with your request, we will explain why.

7.2 Exercising your rights

To exercise the above rights, please send an e-mail to:

- cn-complaint@ubs.com, if you are a client of UBS China Limited;
- ubsf@ubs.com, if you are a client of UBS Futures Co. Limited;
- dl-am-chinaclientservicing@ubs.com; if you are client of UBS Asset Management (Shanghai) Limited or UBS Rui Hua Overseas Investment Fund Management (Shanghai) Ltd.;

If you are not satisfied with any aspect of the processing of your Personal Information by UBS, we would like to discuss it with you to understand how we can rectify the issue. Please raise any concerns by contacting us at the e-mail addresses listed above.

8 Changes to Personal Information

We are committed to keeping your Personal Information accurate and up to date. Therefore, if your Personal Information changes, please inform us of the change as soon as possible.
