6 How long do we store your data?

We will only retain Personal Data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it was collected or to comply with legal, regulatory, or internal policy requirements. To help us do this, we apply criteria to determine the appropriate periods for retaining your Personal Data depending on its purpose.

We will keep your personal data for as long as you are our customer to allow us to provide you with the services and to meet our regulatory requirements, as specified in this document.

Once our relationship with you has ended (for example, after your account has closed or following a transaction such as a payment, your application for a product is refused, or you decide not to go ahead with an application), we will only keep your personal data for a period that is appropriate, which in many cases is up to 10 years after your account closes or following a transaction such as a payment. The period we keep information for is often linked to the amount of time available to bring a legal claim, required by law or regulations, or for compliance and risk management.

We will keep your personal data after this time if we have to do so by law, if there are existing claims or complaints that will reasonably require us to keep your information, or for regulatory reasons. If we do need to keep your information for a longer period, we will continue to protect that information. However, if you wish to have your Personal Data removed from our databases, you can make a request as described below, which we will review as set out therein.

7 What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You may object to direct marketing by clicking the "unsubscribe" link in any of our emails to you, or by emailing us at the address indicated in Section 7.2 at any time.

Where we process your Personal Data on the basis of your consent, or where such processing is necessary for entering into or performing our obligations under a contract with you, you may have the right to request your Personal Data be transferred to you (known as the 'data portability' right). UBS will honour such requests, withdrawal or objection as required under applicable data protection rules but these rights are not absolute: they do not always apply and exemptions may be engaged. We will usually, in response to a request, ask you to verify your identity and/or provide information that helps us to understand your request better. If we do not comply with your request, we will explain why.

In certain circumstances UBS may process your Personal Data through automated individual decision-making, including profiling. Where this takes place, you will be informed of such processing and be given information on criteria and procedures applied. Except where legal exceptions apply, you can request to obtain a human intervention, to express your point of view and to contest the decision where such a decision is exclusively based on automated individual decision-making, including profiling.
