Ad hoc announcement pursuant to Art. 53 LR

Credit Suisse Group AG announces the enlargement of the banking syndicate, the expected terms for the rights issue and the final terms of the share placement to qualified investors

Zurich, October 31, 2022 – Credit Suisse Group AG has enlarged the banking syndicate underwriting the rights issue and announces the reference price, the purchase price and maximum number of new shares to be issued to and to be purchased by a number of qualified investors without the pre-emptive subscription rights of existing shareholders as well as the expected terms of the rights issue.

Further to the announcement on October 27, 2022, Credit Suisse Group AG announces the reference price for the proposed share capital increases of CHF 4.07, which corresponds to the volume weighted average price of the shares of Credit Suisse Group AG traded on SIX Swiss Exchange on October 27 and October 28, 2022.

Credit Suisse Group AG furthermore announces the purchase price of each share and the maximum number of new shares to be issued to and purchased by qualified investors without the pre-emptive subscription rights of existing shareholders. The qualified investors have committed, under customary conditions, to purchase 462,041,884 new shares with a par value of CHF 0.04 each for a purchase price of CHF 3.82, corresponding to 94% of the reference price. The expected gross proceeds to Credit Suisse Group AG from the share placement are expected to amount to CHF 1.76 billion. In connection with the share placement to qualified investors, 307,591,623 new shares are expected to be issued to and purchased by Saudi National Bank (SNB). Following the share placement capital increase, Saudi National Bank is expected to hold 9.9% of Credit Suisse Group AG's share capital. SNB as well as the other qualified investors have committed not to sell the new shares until after the settlement date of the subsequent rights offering and to exercise all the rights that will be allocated to the shares they have committed to acquire.

Furthermore, under the expected terms of the rights offering (i.e., full issuance of all shares to qualified investors in the share placement as described above), Credit Suisse Group AG expects to issue 889,368,458 new shares with a par value of CHF 0.04 each. Shareholders of Credit Suisse Group AG will be allotted one pre-emptive subscription right for each share they hold on November 25, 2022 (after close of trading). It is expected that seven pre-emptive subscription rights entitle their holder – subject to certain restrictions under applicable local laws – to purchase two new shares at an expected offer price of CHF 2.52 per share, in line with the previously published approximate discount to the theoretical ex-rights price (TERP) of 32% to the reference price and resulting in gross proceeds from the rights issue to Credit Suisse Group AG of approximately CHF 2.24 billion. The gross proceeds of both capital increases are expected to amount to CHF 4.0 billion.

To the extent that the share placement to qualified investors as described above does not take place (e.g. if it is not approved by the Extraordinary General Meeting), Credit Suisse Group AG expects to issue 1,767,165,146 new shares with a par value of CHF 0.04 each in the context of the rights issue. In this case, three pre-emptive subscription rights entitle their holder – subject to certain restrictions under applicable local laws – to purchase two new shares at an offer price of CHF 2.27 per share, in line with the previously published approximate discount to TERP of 32% to the reference price and resulting in gross proceeds to Credit Suisse Group AG of approximately CHF 4.0 billion.

Media release

The issuance of the new shares is conditional upon approval by the Extraordinary General Meeting of the capital increases to create the shares which is expected to be held on November 23, 2022. The final terms of the rights issue are expected to be communicated on November 24, 2022.

Statement regarding capital, liquidity and leverage

Credit Suisse Group AG is subject to the Basel framework, as implemented in Switzerland, as well as Swiss legislation and regulations for systemically important banks, which include capital, liquidity, leverage and large exposure requirements and rules for emergency plans designed to maintain systemically relevant functions in the event of threatened insolvency. Credit Suisse Group AG has adopted the Bank for International Settlements (BIS) leverage ratio framework, as issued by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS) and implemented in Switzerland by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA.

Unless otherwise noted, all CET1 ratio, CET1 leverage ratio, Tier-1 leverage ratio, risk-weighted assets and leverage exposure figures in this document are as of the end of the respective period.

Unless otherwise noted, leverage exposure is based on the BIS leverage ratio framework and consists of period-end balance sheet assets and prescribed regulatory adjustments. The tier 1 leverage ratio and CET1 leverage ratio are calculated as BIS tier 1 capital and CET1 capital, respectively, divided by period-end leverage exposure.

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This document contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, targets or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "intends" and "plans" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, targets, goals, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to:
