

Tasos Zavitsanakis
Head of Sustainable Finance Greater China
UBS APAC Sustainable Finance Office

Tasos, is part of UBS's APAC Sustainable Finance Office and Head of Sustainable Finance of Greater China. The team's objective is to enable UBS's business divisions in building ESG capacity and competencies and engage UBS's clients in their ESG and Sustainability agenda. Specifically, Tasos is responsible for client engagements in ESG transition and leads the banks efforts in the Voluntary Carbon Offset Markets. Tasos has over 20 years of experience within financial services sector in UK and APAC. He brings strong understanding of financial and sustainability regulations, sustainability financial products and decarbonization strategies. Tasos holds certificate's in CFA ESG Investing, GARP Sustainability And Climate Risk and Circular Economy and Sustainability Strategies from University of Cambridge. He is an accredited GRI Reporting professional and a Certified AI Gore Climate Reality Leader speaker.