The tax treatment depends on the individual circumstances of each client and may therefore vary. Credit Suisse does not provide tax advice and tax implications have not been taken into consideration when calculating the returns.

1 If the withdrawal limit is exceeded without observing the notice period, there is an automatic charge of 1.0% of the amount exceeding the withdrawal limit.

No restrictions on the purchase of securities and precious metals (through Credit Suisse) or for interest payments and principal repayments at Credit Suisse.

2 The bank charges an annual fee for bank documents in paper form in the amount of CHF 24 per client relationship number and recipient, which is calculated on a pro rata basis each month. In addition, credit and debit advices in paper form will each cost CHF 0.50 per advice (max. CHF 100 per year), plus value-added tax, currently 8.1% for clients domiciled in Switzerland or the Principality of Liechtenstein. Clients domiciled abroad are not subject to VAT.

3 Blocking of Cash Service card: CHF 55 per card.

General information:

Additional fees may be charged for clients domiciled outside of Switzerland/Liechtenstein (see the Overview of conditions).

This does not include clients with a Credit Suisse Banking package.
