

Oliver KADERABEK
Head of WM A&S Investment Specialists
UBS Global Wealth Management

Oliver Kaderabek is the head of WM A&S Investment Specialists. He, together with his team member, act as Investment Specialists together with client advisors to the entire range of investment offerings with a focus on discretionary and advisory mandates, as well as Investment Funds and Alternative Investments in close collaboration with other specialists.

Oliver started his career at UBS in 1997. After his trainee program, including a stay in London, he joined in 1999 the Active Advisory team. In 2003 he moved to Investment Consulting, advising clients on strategic asset allocation. Since then, he had various team head positions in Global Investment Management in Zurich. Before moving to Singapore in 2019, he was head of Client Investment Specialists for WM Switzerland & WM EMEA clients with specialists based in Switzerland and in various European countries.