

Conrad HUBER

Business Sector Head Greater China Singapore, Indonesia & Japan International Global Wealth Management UBS AG

Conrad Huber is currently the Business Sector Head for Greater China Singapore, Indonesia and Japan International, Global Wealth Management, UBS AG. He joined UBS Investment Bank as the APAC Head of the newly formed Unified Global Capital Markets team back in 2019. He helped and continues to help increase collaboration between the Wealth Management and Investment Banking (Capital Markets) units.

Mr Huber runs 9 teams of Private Bankers which look after our valued clients. He advises UBS's key clients and business owners across his span of market coverage, drawing upon his deep understanding of international financial markets and experience in Investment Banking. Additionally, he advises and supports UBS senior leadership across a broad range of key business activities.

Prior to joining UBS AG, he was Deputy Market Group Head and Market Leader for Indonesia at Credit Suisse AG. Mr Huber held several senior APAC appointments in Capital Markets and/or Wealth Management at Credit Suisse AG. This included being the Head of APAC Trading Solutions which entailed Equities, Fixed Income, Foreign Exchange, Structured Products and Direct Access Clients. He was also the Regional Head of Structured Products for APAC. Mr. Huber has spent a significant amount of time in Asia working in both Financial hubs Hong Kong and Singapore in addition to spending considerable time in China, Taiwan, Japan, and Indonesia.

Mr Huber holds a Masters degree in Business Administration from University of St. Gallen, Switzerland.