

Lachlan TOWART
Healthcare Equity Sector Strategist
UBS Global Wealth Management

Lachlan joined the UBS Chief Investment Office in 2015 in Zurich, prior to relocating to London and then Hong Kong. His responsibility is coverage of the healthcare and chemicals sectors.

Lachlan originally joined UBS Investment Bank in 2000 as a corporate finance analyst, before moving to equity research where he covered biotechnology and medical technology stocks. He subsequently covered European pharmaceuticals as a sell-side analyst at HSBC, and global healthcare as a sector specialist salesperson at Societe Generale and Kepler Capital Markets. Lachlan re-joined UBS in March 2015 in the CIO.

He holds a Master's degree in philosophy from the University of Nottingham, the CFA Certificate in ESG Investing, and is a CFA charterholder.
