

The century club

The rising prospect of living ten decades among Taiwan's wealthy investors

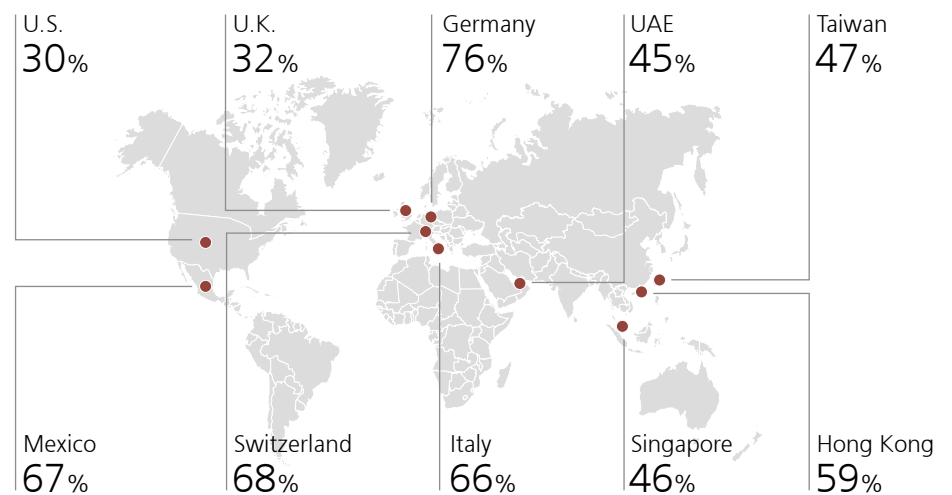

It's not science fiction

47%

of wealthy investors in Taiwan expect to reach 100

"I expect to live to 100."

Top concerns of living a long life

Rising healthcare costs

56%

Not knowing what length of investments to make

39%

Lowering living standards to make wealth last longer

36%

Health over wealth

96%

"Health is more important than wealth."

How much wealth would you sacrifice for health?

Wealthy put a price tag on health

12%

spend more than $10,000 a year on direct medical costs

10%

spend more than $10,000 a year on preventative services like gyms and nutritional supplements

Is working the fountain of youth?

86% "Working as long as possible is good for my health."

74% "I am or expect to work longer to maintain my lifestyle."

71% "I don't work at weekends."

71% "I don't work on holiday."

53% "I don't check in after hours"

Investing for a century

95%

are making financial changes because of longer life expectancies

54% making longer-term investments

58% adjusting my long-term financial plan

39% adjusting my spending patterns

Giving while living is increasingly popular

64% plan to give away more while alive

57% plan to leave more of legacy to charities, foundations and good causes

44% plan to give more away to grandchildren rather than just children

Are you ready to live a long and healthy life? Talk to your UBS Client Advisor.