CREDIT SUISSE HIGH YIELD BOND FUND ANNOUNCES NAME AND INVESTMENT POLICY CHANGES

New York, New York, July 14, 2025 – Credit Suisse High Yield Bond Fund (the "Fund") announced today that the Fund's Board of Trustees has approved changing the Fund's name to "Credit Suisse High Yield Credit Fund" and certain changes to the Fund's investment policies that expand the Fund's ability to invest in high yield credit instruments (collectively, the "Strategy Changes"). The Strategy Changes, including the change to the Fund's name, are expected to be effective on or about September 15, 2025.

As part of the Strategy Changes, the Fund will amend its non-fundamental 80% investment policy as follows:

Current 80% Investment Policy	New 80% Policy
Under normal market conditions, the Fund will invest at least 80% of its total assets in fixed income securities of U.S. issuers rated below investment grade quality (lower than Baa by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. or lower than BBB by S&P Global Ratings, a division of S&P Global Inc., or comparably rated by another nationally recognized rating agency), or in unrated fixed income securities that UBS Asset Management (Americas) LLC, the Fund's investment adviser, determines to be of comparable quality.	Under normal circumstances, the Fund will invest at least 80% of its net assets, plus any borrowings for investment purposes, in investments rated below investment grade quality.

The Strategy Changes do not require shareholder approval. No changes are being made to the Fund's investment objectives or portfolio management team. The Fund will continue to trade on the NYSE American LLC under the trading symbol "DHY" after the Strategy Changes, including the change to the Fund's name, take effect.

UBS Asset Management (Americas) LLC, the Fund's investment adviser, is part of the Asset Management business of UBS Group AG, a leading global financial services organization headquartered in Zurich.
