How did the Fund perform last year and what affected its performance?

Portfolio performance summary

What worked:

- Security selection within information technology and materials contributed.
- On a stock level, SK Hynix, Interglobe Aviation, and Mercadolibre were among the main contributors.
- On a country level, selection within South Korea and Taiwan contributed.

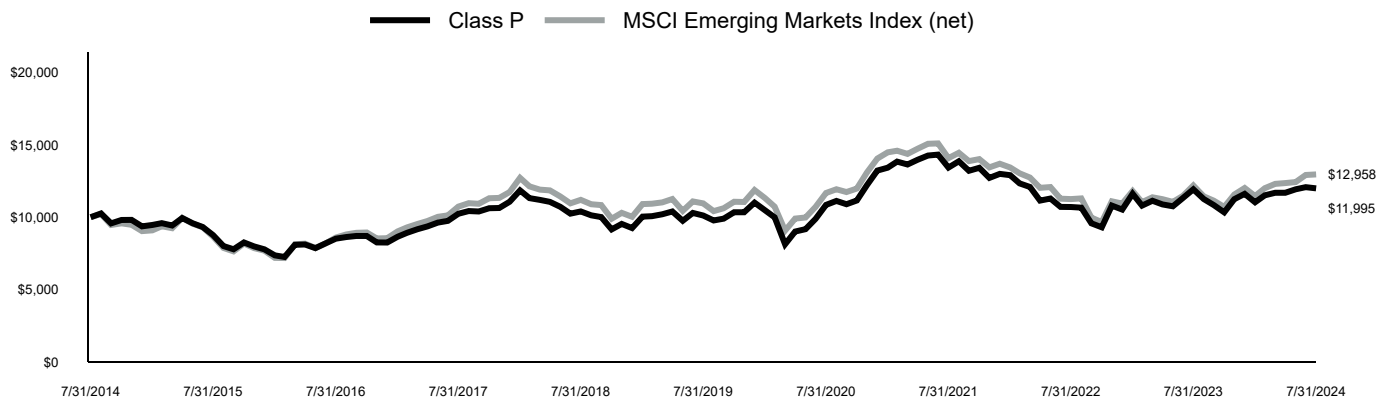

What didn't work:

- Security selection within communication services, financials, and real estate detracted.
- On a stock level, First Quantum Materials, Baidu, and Melco Resorts & Entertainment were among the main detractors.
- On a country level, an overweight to China and underweight to India and Taiwan detracted on a relative basis, as did security selection within India and China.

The Fund did not invest in derivatives during the reporting period.
