LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Dear Shareholders:

The Tax-Free Fixed Income Fund VI for Puerto Rico Residents, Inc. (formerly known as Puerto Rico Fixed Income Fund VI, Inc. and hereinafter referred to as the "Fund") is pleased to present the Letter to Shareholders for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022.

The performance of the Fund during the year was driven by three major events: (1) the beginning of a tightening cycle by the Federal Reserve in March 2022, (2) the invasion of Ukraine by Russia in February 2022, and (3) to a lesser extent, the re-structuring of the Puerto Rico debt in March 2022.

At its December 2021 meeting, the Federal Reserve Board ("Fed") modified its assessment of inflation, removing the word temporary from the assessment and signaling the beginning of a tightening cycle. This guidance was followed up by additional comments on the impact of supply disruptions and the continued increase in employment. At its March 2022 meeting the Fed raised short-term interest rates for the first time since the start of the Covid-19 pandemic in 2020. The market expects six additional 0.25% increases for the remaining of 2022 with the potential for more aggressive hikes.

After weeks of tense negotiations, in February 2022, Russia invaded Ukraine. The initial market reaction was a flight to quality trade with equity markets decreasing and sovereign yields on U.S. Treasuries, German bonds and other developed countries decreasing. Since Russia is a major exporter of oil and natural gas, prices shot up; the price of oil, for example, increased above $100 a barrel. European Countries and the U.S. reacted by placing severe economic sanctions on the Russian Government and many of its closest oligarchs.

As the invasion continued to unfold, markets turned their attention to the potential inflationary pressures of high oil, gas and other commodities prices. Additional supply chain disruptions are possible in other sectors of the world economy. Markets have reversed course, equity markets recovered most of their losses and interest rates increased across the yield curve. However, risks remain elevated and volatility is high.

The effect of these events was a sharp flattening of the yield curve. The yield of the two-year note increased 2.11% from 0.17% to 2.28%. The yield of the ten-year note increased 0.63%, from 1.69% at the beginning of the year to 2.32% at year-end. Thus, the yield curve flattened 1.48% during the year.

In Puerto Rico, the Tittle III Federal Court re-structuring plan for most of the Commonwealth's remaining debt became effective on March 15, 2022. This plan included the General Obligations and Public Building Authority debt, the Highway and Transportation Authority, Pension Obligation Bonds and several other smaller agencies. The Electric and Power Authority is the last remaining agency; the Commonwealth rejected the proposed re-structuring and the court mandated mediation. Please refer to the Management Discussion section for details on the impact on the Fund of the re-structuring of the Puerto Rico bond holdings.

The combination of higher inflation, a flatter yield curve, the start of a monetary tightening cycle, and the continued elevated geopolitical risks present a challenging environment for the management of the Fund. Notwithstanding, the Investment Adviser remains committed to looking for investment opportunities within the allowed parameters while providing professional management services to the Fund for the benefit of its shareholders

Sincerely,

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

REGISTRATION UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANIES ACT OF 1940

The Fund is a non-diversified, closed-end management investment company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico ("Puerto Rico") and registered as an investment company under the U.S. Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"). , as of May 14, 2021. Prior thereto, it was registered under the Puerto Rico Investment Companies Act of 1954, as amended.

On May 24, 2018, the Economic Growth, Regulatory Relief, and Consumer Protection Act (Pub. L. No. 115-174) was signed into law and amended the 1940 Act, to repeal the exemption from its registration of investment companies created under the laws of Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or any other U.S. possession under Section 6(a)(1) thereof. The repeal of the exemption took effect on May 24, 2021. Upon the Fund's registration under the 1940 Act, it must now register its future offerings of securities under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, absent any available exception. In connection with the process required for registration of the Fund's securities, it was required to change its corporate name and implement certain operational changes including, without limitation, a reduction in the types and/or amount of leverage, as well as a prohibition against engaging in principal transactions with affiliates. The Fund also suspended its current offerings of securities, pending its registration under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, absent an applicable exception.

FUND PERFORMANCE*

	One Year
Based on market price	(31.22)%
Based on net asset value ("NAV")	(3.87)%

Past performance is not predictive of future results. Performance calculations do not reflect any deduction of taxes that a shareholder may have to pay on Fund distributions or any commissions payable on the sale of Fund shares.

The following table provides summary data on the Fund's dividends, NAV and market prices for the year and as of year-end.

Dividend yield-based on market at year-end	6.44%
Dividend yield based on NAV at year-end	3.46%

* The following discussion contains financial terms that are defined in the attached Glossary of Fund Terms.

NAV as of March 31, 2022	$2.46
Market Price as of March 31, 2022	$1.32
Premium (discount) to NAV	(46.34%)

The Fund seeks to pay monthly dividends out of its net investment income. To permit the Fund to maintain a more stable monthly dividend, the Fund may pay dividends that are more or less than the amount of net income earned during the year. All monthly dividends paid by the Fund during the fiscal year were paid from net investment income. In prior years, the Fund disclosed the yield based on the initial $10 offering price of May 2008¹. With this report, the Fund is transitioning to disclosures using current values, to align with industry practice. The basis of the distributions is the Fund's net investment income for tax purposes. See Note 9 to the Financial Statements for a reconciliation of book and tax income.

The Fund's investment portfolio is comprised of various security classes. The Investment Adviser considers numerous characteristics of each asset class, in an effort to meet the Fund's investment objective. Many securities in which the Fund has invested have call dates prior to the final maturity.

Figure 1 below reflects the breakdown of the investment portfolio as of March 31, 2022. For details of the security categories below, please refer to the enclosed Schedule of Investments.

The largest Puerto Rico municipal bond holdings in the portfolio, representing 39.44% of the portfolio are the newly-issued Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation ("COFINA") bonds. The newly exchanged bonds are secured by 53.65% of the pledged sales and use tax through 2058, which amount to $420 million for fiscal year 2019, and increase by 4% each year thereafter, capping out at ¹ For comparison purposes, the dividend yield based on the $10 offering price is 1.27%.

$992.5 million in fiscal year 2041. The bonds debt service reserve was fully funded during October 2021. During the year, the valuation of the bonds decreased as a result of the increase in yields of fixed income securities.

The Plan of Adjustment of the Commonwealth was deemed effective and consummated on March 15, 2022. The Plan included the General Obligation and Public Building Bonds, the Highway and Transportation Authority bonds, the ERS Pension Obligation bonds and several other minor agencies. The Fund did not own any securities issued by the re-structured issuers.

The balance of the Puerto Rico municipal bond holdings consists of bonds issued by the Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority ("PREPA") representing approximately 0.79% of the portfolio. Soon after the Plan of Adjustment went into effect, the Commonwealth rejected the PREPA Plan of Adjustment that had been negotiated with the PREPA bondholders. The U.S. Federal District Court has mandated mediation between the parties to try to negotiate a new plan. In spite of these developments, the valuation of the PREPA bonds increased during the year.

The U.S. portfolio is composed of U.S. agencies and U.S. municipal bonds. The U.S. Agencies represent 26.45% of the portfolio, the U.S. municipal bonds 33.32%. Both the U.S. Agencies and U.S. municipal bonds decreased in value based on the increase in yields during the year. The rating of the Illinois General Obligation Bonds was upgraded during the year.

The NAV of the fund decreased $0.18 during the year from $2.64 at the beginning of the year to $2.46 at end of the year. . As discussed above, most of the portfolio decreased in value based on the increase in yields of fixed income securities. At year-end the Fund indicated market value was a 46.3% discount to its NAV, an increase from a discount of 25.0% in 2021.

FUND LEVERAGE

THE BENEFITS AND RISKS OF LEVERAGE

As its fundamental policy, the Fund may not (i) issue senior securities, as defined in the 1940 Act, except to the extent permitted under the 1940 Act and except as otherwise described in the prospectus, or (ii) borrow money from banks or other entities, in excess of 33 1/3% of its total assets (including the amount of borrowings and debt securities issued); except that, the Fund may borrow from banks or other financial institutions for temporary or emergency purposes (including, among others, financing repurchases of the Notes and tender offers), in an amount of up to an additional 5% of its total assets.

Leverage can produce additional income when the income derived from investments financed with borrowed funds exceeds the cost of such borrowed funds. In such an event, the Fund's net income will be greater than it would be without leverage. On the other hand, if the income derived from securities purchased with borrowed funds is not sufficient to cover the cost of such funds, the Fund's net income will be less than it would be without leverage.

To obtain leverage, the Fund enters into collateralized repurchase agreements with major institutions in the U.S. and/or issues Tax Exempt Secured Obligations ("TSO") in the local market. Both are accounted for as collateralized borrowings in the financial statements. Typically, the Fund borrows for approximately 30-90 days; the borrowing rate variable and based on short-term rates. The TSOs are rated F-1 in accordance with Fitch Ratings published rating guidelines. As stated above, the TSO program was discontinued in May 2021 pending registration to the 1940 Act.

As of March 31, 2022, the Fund had the following leverage outstanding:

Repurchase Agreements	$1,302,000
Leverage Ratio	24.78%

Refer to the Schedule of Investments for a detail of the pledged securities and to Notes 5 to the Financial Statements for further details on outstanding leverage during the year.

FUND REPURCHASE PROGRAM

REPURCHASE PROGRAM

The Fund's Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of the Fund's shares of common stock in the open market when such shares are trading at or below NAV of the shares, up to 60% of the aggregate number of shares of common stock issued by the Fund. The Fund's Share Repurchase Program is implemented on a discretionary basis, under the direction of the Investment Adviser. Upon registration under the 1940 Act, any repurchases of Shares by the Fund must now be conducted in accordance therewith and rules and regulations issued thereunder. Prior to May 14, 2021, repurchases of Shares by the Fund were conducted in accordance with the terms and conditions contained in Article 10 of Regulation No. 8469 issued by the Office of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and procedures adopted by the Fund's Board of Directors to address potential conflicts of interest with affiliated broker-dealer UBS Financial Services Incorporated of Puerto Rico.

During the current fiscal year, the Shares continued to experience a period of limited liquidity and/or trading at a discount to their net asset value. Although the holders of the Shares do not have the right to redeem their Shares inasmuch as the Fund is closed-ended, the Fund may, at its sole discretion and in accordance with the 1940 Act and the rules and regulations issued thereunder, effect repurchases of Shares in the open market, in an attempt to increase the liquidity of the Shares as well as reduce any market discount from their corresponding net asset value. There is no assurance that, if such action is undertaken, it will result in the improvement of the Shares' liquidity or reducing any such market discount. Moreover, while such undertaking may have a favorable effect on the market price of the Shares, the repurchase of the Shares by the Fund will decrease the Fund's total assets and therefore, have the effect of increasing the Fund's expense ratio.

The Fund's repurchase activity for each fiscal year is disclosed in Note 3 to the Financial Statements, as well as the quarterly reports to shareholders. The undertaking of a repurchase program does not obligate the Fund to purchase specific amounts of Shares.

There were no repurchases during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022. The total shares repurchased as of March 31, 2022, amounts to 1,475,409 and represents 48.94% of the issued shares of the Fund's common stock since inception.

GLOSSARY OF FUND TERMS

Bond - security issued by a government or corporation that obligates the issuer to pay interest income to the bondholder at regular intervals and to repay the entire amount borrowed at maturity date.

Closed-end fund - a fund that issues a fixed amount of common stock.

Coupon- the interest rate that a bond promises to pay over its life, expressed as a percent over its face value.

Dividend - a per-share distribution of the income earned from a fund's portfolio holdings. When a dividend distribution is made, a fund's net asset value drops by the amount of the distribution because the distribution is no longer considered part of the fund's assets.

Expense ratio- the percentage of a fund's average net assets attributable to common shareholders used to pay fund operating expenses. The expense ratio takes into account, investment management fees, administration fees as well as other operating expenses such as legal, audit, insurance and shareholder communications.

Interest Rate Swap – an agreement to exchange one interest rate stream for another. No principal changes hands.

Maturity- the date on which the face value of a bond must be repaid. For a portfolio it is represented in years and measures the average length to maturity of all the bonds in the portfolio. This measure does not take into account embedded options in the bonds comprising the portfolio.

Net Asset Value (NAV) Per Share – the NAV per share is determined by subtracting the fund's total liabilities from its total assets, and dividing that amount by the number of fund shares of Common Stock outstanding.

Notional amount - refers to the specified dollar amount of the swap in which the exchange of interest payment is based.

Premium/Discount- the difference between the bid price of the shares of a fund and their NAV. In a case of a premium, the bid price is above the NAV. In the case of a discount, the bid price is below the NAV. These amounts can be expressed as numerical values or percentages. The higher the percentage, the larger the difference (positive or negative) between the market price and the NAV of a fund.

Total Investment Return - the change in value of a fund investment over a specified period of time, taking into account the change in a fund's market price and the reinvestment of all fund distributions.

Turnover Ratio – the turnover ratio represents the fund's level of trading activity. The Fund divides the lesser of purchases or sales (expressed in dollars and excluding all securities with maturities of less than one year) by the Fund's average monthly assets.

Undistributed income- the net income of a fund that has not been distributed to common shareholders as of the latest available audited financial statements. In the case of the target maturity type-funds, it also includes the amounts to be distributed after the target date to return the initial (i.e. $10) investment.

1. Reporting Entity and Significant Accounting Policies

Tax-Free Fixed Income Fund VI for Puerto Rico Residents, Inc. (formerly known as Puerto Rico Fixed Income Fund VI, Inc. and hereinafter referred to as the "Fund") is a non-diversified, closed-end management investment company. The Fund is a corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and is registered as an investment company under the Investment Companies Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"), as of May 14, 2021. Prior to such date and since inception, the Fund was registered and operated under the Puerto Rico Investment Companies Act of 1954, as amended (the "Puerto Rico Investment Companies Act"). The Fund was incorporated on May 28, 2008 and commenced operations on September 22, 2008. UBS Asset Managers of Puerto Rico, a division of UBS Trust Company of Puerto Rico ("UBSTC"), is the Fund's Investment Adviser (the "Investment Adviser"). UBSTC is also the Fund's Administrator ("Administrator").

The Fund's investment objective is to provide current income, consistent with the preservation of capital.

On May 24, 2018, the Economic Growth, Regulatory Relief, and Consumer Protection Act (Pub. L. No. 115-174) was signed into law and amended the 1940 Act, to repeal the exemption from its registration of investment companies created under the laws of Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or any other U.S. possession under Section 6(a)(1) thereof. The repeal of the exemption took effect on May 24, 2021. Upon the Fund's registration under the 1940 Act, it must now register its future offerings of securities under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, absent any available exception. In connection with the process required for registration of the Fund's securities, it was required to change its corporate name and implement certain operational changes including, without limitation, a reduction in the types and/or amount of leverage, as well as a prohibition against engaging in principal transactions with affiliates. The Fund also suspended the current offerings of its securities, pending the registration of the securities under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, absent an exception.

The Fund is considered an investment company under the generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America ("GAAP") and follows the accounting and reporting guidance applicable to investment companies in the Financial Accounting Standard Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification 946 ("ASC 946"), Financial Services-Investment Companies.

The following is a summary of the Fund's significant accounting policies:

Use of Estimates in Financial Statements Preparation

The accompanying financial statements of the Fund have been prepared on the basis of GAAP. The preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Net Asset Value Per Share

The Net Asset Value ("NAV") per share of the Fund is determined by the Administrator on Wednesday of each week after the close of trading on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") or, if such day is not a business day in New York City and Puerto Rico, on the next succeeding business day, and at month-end if such date is not a Wednesday. The net asset value per share is computed by dividing the assets of the Fund less its liabilities, by the number of outstanding shares of the Fund.

Valuation of Investments

All securities are valued by UBSTC on the basis of valuations provided by pricing services or by dealers which were approved by the Fund's management and the Board of Directors. In arriving at their valuation, pricing sources may use both a grid matrix of securities values as well as the evaluations of their staff. The valuation, in either case, could be based on information concerning actual market transactions and quotations from dealers or a grid matrix performed by an outside vendor that reviews certain market and security factors to arrive at a bid price for a specific security. Certain Puerto Rico obligations have a limited number of market participants and, thus, might not have a readily ascertainable market value and may have periods of illiquidity. Certain securities of the Fund for which quotations are not readily available from any source, are valued at fair value by or under the direction of the Investment Adviser utilizing quotations and other information concerning similar securities obtained from recognized dealers. The Investment Adviser can override any price that it believes is not consistent with market conditions. Valuation adjustments are limited to those necessary to ensure that the financial instrument's fair value is adequately representative of the price that would be received or paid in the marketplace. These adjustments include amounts that reflect counterparty credit quality, constraints on liquidity, and unobservable parameters that are applied consistently.

The Investment Adviser has established a Valuation Committee (the "Committee") which is responsible for overseeing the pricing and valuation of all securities held in the Fund. The Committee operates under pricing and valuation policies and procedures established by the Investment Adviser and approved by the Board of Directors. The policies and procedures set forth the mechanisms and processes to be employed on a weekly basis related to the valuation of portfolio securities for the purpose of determining the net asset value of the Fund. The Committee reports to the Board of Directors on a regular basis. At March 31, 2022, no security's fair value was determined by the Committee.

GAAP provides a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosures about fair value measurements and requires disclosures surrounding the various inputs that are used in determining the fair value of the Fund's investments. These inputs are summarized in three (3) broad levels listed below:

- Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities at the measurement date. An active market is one in which transactions for the assets occur with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis.
- Level 2 - Significant inputs other than quoted prices that are observable (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, pre-payment speeds, credit risk, etc.), either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 - Significant unobservable inputs, for example, inputs derived through extrapolation that cannot be corroborated by observable market data. These will be developed based on the best information available in the circumstances, which might include UBSTC's own data. Level 3 inputs will consider the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset, including assumptions about risk (e.g., credit risk, model risk, etc.).

The Fund maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the observable inputs be used when available. Fair value is based upon quoted market prices when available.

The estimated fair value may be subjective in nature and may involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment for certain financial instruments. Changes in the underlying assumptions used in calculating fair value could significantly affect the results. Therefore, the estimated fair value may materially differ from the value that could actually be realized on sale.

Tax-Free Fixed Income Fund VI for Puerto Rico Residents, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
March 31, 2022

The inputs and methodology used for valuing securities or level assigned are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

Following is a description of the Fund's valuation methodologies used for assets and liabilities measured at fair value:

Puerto Rico Agencies Bonds and Notes: Obligations of Puerto Rico and political subdivisions are segregated and those with similar characteristics are then divided into specific sectors. The values for these securities are obtained from third-party pricing service providers that use a pricing methodology based on observable market inputs. Market inputs used in the evaluation process include all or some of the following: trades, bid price or spread, quotes, benchmark curves (including, but not limited to, Treasury benchmarks, and swap curves), and discount and capital rates. These bonds are classified as Level 2.

Obligations of U.S. Government Sponsored Entities, State, and Municipal Obligations: The fair value of obligations of U.S. Government sponsored entities, state, and municipal obligations is obtained from third-party pricing service providers that use a pricing methodology based on an active exchange market and based on quoted market prices for similar securities. These securities are classified as Level 2. U.S. agency notes are priced based on a bond's theoretical value from similar bonds defined by credit quality and market sector, and for which the fair value incorporates an option adjusted spread in deriving their fair value. These securities are classified as Level 2.

The following is a summary of the portfolio by inputs used as of March 31, 2022, in valuing the Fund's investments carried at fair value:

	Investment in Securities			Balance 03/31/22
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Puerto Rico Agencies Bonds and Notes	$ -	$ 1,985,540	$ -	$ 1,985,540
US Government, Agencies, and Instrumentalities	-	1,305,459	-	1,305,459
US Municipals	-	1,644,879	-	1,644,879
	$ -	$ 4,935,878	$ -	$ 4,935,878

There were no Level 3 securities during the year ended March 31, 2022.

There were no transfers between levels during the year ended March 31, 2022.

Temporary cash investments are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value. There were no temporary cash investments as of March 31, 2022.

Taxation

As a registered investment company under the 1940 Act, the Fund will not be subject to Puerto Rico income tax for any taxable year if it distributes at least 90% of its taxable net investment income for such year, as determined for these purposes pursuant to section 1112.01(a)(2) of the Puerto Rico Internal Revenue Code of 2011, as amended. Accordingly, as the Fund intends to meet this distribution requirement, the income earned by the Fund is not subject to Puerto Rico income tax at the Fund level.

The Fund can invest in taxable and tax-exempt securities. In general, distributions of taxable income dividends, if any, to Puerto Rico individuals, estates, and trusts are subject to a withholding tax of 15% in the case of dividends distributed, if certain requirements are met. Moreover, distribution of capital gains dividends, if any, to (a) Puerto Rico individuals, estates, and trusts are subject to a tax of 15% in the case of dividends distributed, and (b) Puerto Rico corporations are subject to a tax of 20% of dividends distributed. Tax withholdings are effected at the time of payment of the corresponding dividend. Individual shareholders may be subject to alternate basic tax on certain fund distributions. Certain Puerto Rico entities receiving taxable income dividends are entitled to claim an 85% dividends received deduction. Fund shareholders are advised to consult their own tax advisers.

Income Taxes ("Accounting Standards Codification 740") requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Fund's tax return to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely-than-not" of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the "more-likely-than-not" threshold are recorded as a tax expense in the current year. Management has analyzed the Fund's tax positions taken on its Puerto Rico income tax returns for all open tax years (prior four (4) tax years) and has concluded that there are no uncertain tax positions. On an ongoing basis, management will monitor the Fund's tax position to determine if adjustments to this conclusion are necessary. The Fund recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions as income tax expenses in the Statement of Operations. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022, the Fund did not incur any interest or penalties.

Statement of Cash Flows

The Fund issues its shares, invests in securities, and distributes dividends from net investment income and net realized gains which are paid in cash. These activities and additional information on cash receipts and payments is presented in the Statement of Cash Flows.

Accounting practices that do not affect the reporting of activities on a cash basis include carrying investments at fair value and amortizing premiums or discounts on debt obligations. Cash, as presented on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities, does not include short-term investments.

Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders

Dividends from net investment income are declared and paid monthly. The Fund may at times pay out less than the entire amount of net investment income earned in any particular period and may at times pay out such accumulated undistributed income earned in other periods, in order to permit the Fund to have a more stable level of distribution. The capital gains realized by the Fund, if any, may be retained by the Fund, as permitted by the Puerto Rico Internal Revenue Code of 2011, as amended, unless the Fund's Board of Directors, acting through the Dividend Committee, determines that the net capital gains will also be distributed. The Fund records dividends on the ex-dividend date.

Derivative Instruments

In order to attempt to hedge various portfolio positions, to manage its costs of funds or to enhance its return, the Fund may invest in certain instruments which are considered derivatives. Because of their increased volatility and potential leveraging effect, derivative instruments may adversely affect the Fund. The use of these instruments for income enhancement purposes subjects the Fund to risks of losses which would not be offset by gains on other portfolio assets or acquisitions. There is no assurance that the Investment Adviser will employ any derivative strategy, and even where such derivatives investments are used for hedging purposes, there can be no assurance that the hedging transactions will be successful or will not result in losses.

The Fund is a party to ISDA (International Swap and Derivatives Association, Inc.) Master Agreements ("Master Agreements") with certain counterparties that govern over-the-counter derivative contracts entered into from time to time. The Master Agreements may contain provisions regarding, among other things, the parties' general obligations, representations, agreements, collateral requirements, events of default, and early termination. Generally, collateral can be in the form of cash or debt securities issued by the U.S. Government or related agencies or other securities as agreed to by the Fund and the applicable counterparty. Collateral requirements are determined based on the Fund's net position with each such counterparty. Termination events applicable to the Fund may occur in certain instances specified in the Master Agreements, which may include, among other things, a specified decline in the Fund's net asset value, not complying with eligible collateral requirements or the termination of the Fund's Investment Adviser. In each case, upon occurrence, the counterparty may elect to terminate the swap early and cause the settlement of all or some of the derivative contracts outstanding, including the payment of any losses and costs resulting from such early termination, as reasonably determined by the terminating party. Any decision by one or more of the Fund's counterparties to elect early termination could impact the Fund's future derivative activity. There were no derivative instruments during the year ended March 31, 2022.

Securities Sold Under Repurchase Agreements

Under these agreements, the Fund sells securities, receives cash in exchange, and agrees to repurchase the securities at a mutually agreed date and price. Ordinarily, those counterparties with which the Fund enters into these agreements require delivery of collateral and are able to sell or repledge the collateral; however, the Fund retains effective control over such collateral through the agreement to repurchase the collateral on or by the maturity of the repurchase agreement. These transactions are treated as financings and recorded as liabilities. Therefore, no gain or loss is recognized on the transaction, and the securities pledged as collateral remain recorded as assets of the Fund. These agreements involve the risk that the market value of the securities purchased with the proceeds from the sale of securities received by the Fund, may decline below the price of the securities that the Fund is obligated to repurchase, and that the value of the collateral posted by the Fund increases in value and the counterparty does not return it. Because the Fund borrows under repurchase agreements based on the estimated fair value of the pledged assets, the Fund's ongoing ability to borrow under its repurchase facilities may be limited and its lenders may initiate margin calls in the event of adverse changes in the market. A decrease in market value of the pledged assets may require the Fund to post additional collateral or otherwise sell assets at a time when it may not be in the best interest of the Fund to do so.

Paydowns

Realized gains or losses on mortgage-backed security paydowns are recorded as an adjustment to interest income. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022, the Fund had no realized gains/losses on mortgage-backed securities paydowns. The Fund declares and pays monthly dividends from net investment income. For purposes of compliance with the 90% distribution threshold for the Fund's tax exemption, gains and losses related to mortgage-backed security

Tax-Free Fixed Income Fund VI for Puerto Rico Residents, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements

paydowns are not included in net investment income. See Note 9 for a reconciliation between taxable and book net investment income.

Preferred Shares

Pursuant to the Fund's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended and supplemented, the Fund's Board of Directors is authorized to issue up to 12,000,000 preferred shares with a par value of $25, in one or more series. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022, no preferred shares were issued or outstanding.

Other

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date (the date on which the order to buy or sell is executed). Realized gains and losses on security transactions are determined on the identified cost method. Premiums and discounts on securities purchased are amortized using the interest method over the life or the expected life of the respective securities. Premiums are amortized at the earliest call date for any applicable securities. Income from interest and dividends from cumulative preferred shares is accrued, except when collection is not expected. Expenses are recorded as they are incurred.

2. Investment Advisory, Administrative, Custodian, Transfer Agency Agreements, and Other Transactions With Affiliates

Pursuant to an investment advisory contract (the "Advisory Agreement") with UBS Asset Managers of Puerto Rico, a division of UBSTC, and subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors, the Fund receives investment advisory services in exchange for a fee. The investment advisory fee will not exceed 0.75% of the Fund's average weekly gross assets. For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022, investment advisory fees amounted to $42,489 equivalent to 0.75% of the Fund's average weekly gross assets. The Investment Advisor voluntarily waived investment advisory fees in the amount of $28,326, for a net fee of $14,163, which represents an effective annual rate of 0.25%. The investment advisory fees payable amounted to $1,143 as of March 31, 2022.

UBSTC also provides administrative, custody, and transfer agency services pursuant to Administration, Custodian, and Transfer Agency, Registrar, and Shareholder Servicing Agreements. UBSTC has engaged JP Morgan to act as the sub-custodian for the Fund. UBSTC provides facilities and personnel to the Fund for the performance of its administration duties. The Administration and Transfer Agency, Registrar, and Shareholder Servicing Agreement will not exceed 0.15% and 0.05%, respectively of the Fund's average weekly gross assets. The Custody fees are solely sub-custodian costs and out of pocket expenses reimbursements. For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022, the administrative, custody, and transfer agency services fee amounted to $24,348. The administrator, custodian, and transfer agent voluntarily waived service fees in the amount of $2,833, for a net fee of $21,515, which is equivalent to 0.38% of the Fund's average weekly gross assets. The administrative, custody, and transfer agent fees payable amounted to $1,776 as of March 31, 2022.

UBSTC and the Fund have entered into an agreement whereby UBSTC agrees to assume the ordinary operating expenses of the Fund relating to services rendered to the Fund in the ordinary course of business by third parties incurred on or after the first day of the current fiscal year of the Fund and prior to the earlier of (i) the termination of the existing advisory agreement between UBSTC and the Fund, and (ii) the last day of the current fiscal year, other than the fees payable to UBSTC pursuant to the administration agreement, the investment advisory agreement, and the other agreements between UBSTC and the Fund (which fees total 0.75% of the Fund's average weekly gross assets, after giving effect to a reduction of the advisory fee from 0.75% to 0.25%), to the extent necessary so that the Fund's total annual portfolio operating expenses do not exceed 1.25% of the Fund's average weekly gross assets, as explained in the next paragraph.

The Fund agrees to reimburse UBSTC for expenses of the Fund that are paid by UBSTC, subject to the following limitations: (a) the Fund will reimburse UBSTC for expenses paid by UBSTC hereunder at the end of each fiscal year, provided that after such reimbursement the Fund's total annual portfolio operating expenses do not exceed 1.25% of the Fund's average weekly gross assets; (b) no reimbursement shall be paid after the third anniversary of the date in which the Fund accrues the receivable amount from UBSTC. During the year, $233,219 in expenses were waived by UBSTC. The excess expenses potentially reimbursable to UBSTC at March 31, 2022, amounted to $565,950, of which $128,273 expires during the fiscal year March 31, 2022, $96,368 expires during fiscal year March 31, 2023, $108,090 expires during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 and $233,219 expires during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025.

Certain Fund officers and directors are also officers and directors of UBSTC. The four (4) independent directors of the Fund's Board of Directors through April 30, 2021, and six (6) as of May 2021 are paid based upon an agreed fee of $1,000 per quarterly Board meeting, plus expenses, and $500 per quarterly Audit Committee meeting, plus expenses. For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022, the independent directors of the Fund were paid an aggregate compensation and expenses of $30,667. The directors fees payable amounted to $6,000 as of March 31, 2022.

Prior to May 14, 2021, the Fund was not registered under the 1940 Act, and therefore, was not subject to the restrictions contained therein regarding, among other things, transactions between the Fund and UBS Financial Services, Inc. ("UBSFS"), or its affiliates ("Affiliated Transactions"). In that regard, the Board of Directors of the Fund had adopted a set of Procedures for Affiliated Transactions ("Procedures") in an effort to address potential conflicts of interest that could arise prior to registration under the 1940 Act. See Note 1 for further information on recent events.

Fund affiliates may have lending, banking, brokerage, underwriting, or other business relationships with the issuers of the securities in which the Fund invests.

The total amount (in thousands) of other affiliated and unaffiliated purchases and sales of investment securities, originations of securities sold under repurchase agreements and short-term notes, listed by counterparty, during the year were as follows:

	Purchases	%	Sales	%	Securities Sold Under Repurchase Agreements	%

3. Capital Share Transactions

The Fund is authorized to issue up to 88,000,000 common shares, par value $0.01 per share.

There were no capital share transactions for the year ended March 31, 2022.

The Fund's Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of the Fund's shares of common stock in the open market when such shares are trading at or below NAV of the shares, up to 60% of the aggregate number of shares of common stock issued by the Fund. As of March 31, 2022, the total shares repurchased represent 48.94% and the total shares available to be repurchased represent 11.06% of the issued shares of the Fund's common stock since inception. These repurchases were executed prior to registration under the 1940 Act. All repurchases conducted after the 1940 Act registration, must be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the 1940 Act.

There were no shares repurchased during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022 and March 31, 2021.

4. Investment Transactions

There were no investment transactions for the year ended March 31, 2022.

Puerto Rico Restructuring Plan Developments:

The Plan of Adjustment of the Commonwealth was deemed effective and consummated on March 15, 2022. The Fund did not own any securities re-structured by the plan.

Soon after the Commonwealth Plan went into effect, the Commonwealth rejected the Puerto Electric Power Authority ("PREPA") Plan of Adjustment that had been negotiated with PREPA bondholders. The Tittle III Federal District Court has mandated mediation between the parties to try to negotiate a new plan. The defaulted PREPA bonds owned by the fund continue to trade in the market.

5. Securities Sold Under Repurchase Agreements

Securities sold under repurchase agreements amounted to $1,302,000 at March 31, 2022, and related information is as follows:

Weighted average interest rate at the end of the year	0.35 %
Maximum aggregate balance outstanding at any time of the year	$ 1,401,000
Average balance outstanding during the year	$ 1,325,302
Average interest rate during the year	0.24 %

At March 31, 2022, investment securities amounting to $1,305,459 were pledged as collateral for securities sold under repurchase agreements. The counterparties have the right to sell or repledge the assets during the term of the repurchase agreement with the Fund. Interest payable on securities sold under repurchase agreements amounted to $339 at March 31, 2022.

Notes to Financial Statements

The following table presents the Fund's repurchase agreements by counterparty and the related collateral pledged by the Fund at March 31, 2022:

Counterparty	Gross Amount of Securities Sold Under Repurchase Agreements Presented in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities	Securities Sold Under Repurchase Agreements Available for Offset	Collateral Posted (a)	Net Amount Due To Counterparty (not less than zero)
South Street Securities	$ 1,302,000	$ -	$ 1,302,000	$ -

(a) Collateral received or posted is limited to the net securities sold under repurchase agreements liability amounts. See above for actual collateral received and posted.

6. Short-Term Financial Instruments

The fair value of short-term financial instruments, which includes $1,302,000 of securities sold under repurchase agreements, are substantially the same as the carrying amount reflected in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities, as these are reasonable estimates of fair values, given the relatively short period of time between origination of the instrument and their expected realization. The securities sold under repurchase agreements are classified as Level 2.

7. Concentration of Credit Risk

Concentration of credit risk that arises from financial instruments exists for groups of customers or counterparties when they have similar economic characteristics that would cause their ability to meet contractual obligations to be similarly affected by changes in economic or other conditions.

The major concentration of credit risk arises from the Fund's investment securities in relation to the location of the issuers of such investment securities. For calculating concentration, all securities guaranteed by the U.S. Government or any of its subdivisions are excluded. At March 31, 2022, the Fund had investments with an aggregate fair value of approximately $1,985,540, which were issued by entities located in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and guaranteed by the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or its subdivisions, including Revenue Bonds. Also, at March 31, 2022, the Fund had investments with an aggregate fair value amounting to $1,644,879, which were issued by various municipalities located in the United States and not guaranteed by the U.S. Government.

8. Investment and Other Requirements and Limitations

The Fund is subject to certain requirements and limitations related to investments and leverage. Some of these requirements and limitations are imposed by statute or by regulation, while others are imposed by procedures established by the Board of Directors. The most significant requirements and limitations are discussed below.

While the Fund intends to comply with the above 67% investment requirement as market conditions permit, the Fund's ability to procure sufficient Puerto Rico securities which meet the Fund's investment criteria, in the opinion of the Investment Adviser, may be constrained, due to the volatility affecting the Puerto Rico bond market since 2013 and the fact that the Puerto Rico Government currently remains in the process of restructuring its outstanding debt under Title III of the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act ("PROMESA") as well as undertaking other fiscal measures to stabilize the Puerto Rico's economy in accordance with the requirements of PROMESA, and this inability may continue for an indeterminate period of time. To the extent that the Fund is unable to procure sufficient amounts of such Puerto Rico securities, the Fund may acquire investments in securities of non-Puerto Rico issuers which satisfy the Fund's investment criteria, provided its ability to comply with its tax-exempt policy is not affected, but the Fund will ensure that their investments in Puerto Rico securities will constitute at least 20% of their assets.

The Fund invests, except where the Fund is unable to procure sufficient Puerto Rico Securities that meet the Fund's investment criteria, in the opinion of the Investment Adviser, or other extraordinary circumstances, up to 33% of its total assets in securities issued by non-Puerto Rico entities. These include securities issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Government, its agencies and instrumentalities, non-Puerto Rico mortgage-backed and asset-backed securities, corporate obligations and preferred stock of non-Puerto Rico entities, municipal securities of issuers within the U.S., and other non-Puerto Rico securities that the Investment Adviser may select, consistent with the Fund's investment objectives and policies.

As its fundamental policy, the Fund may not (i) issue senior securities, as defined in the 1940 Act, except to the extent permitted under the 1940 Act and except as otherwise described in the prospectus, or (ii) borrow money from banks or other entities, in excess of 33 1/3% of its total assets (including the amount of borrowings and debt securities issued); except that, the Fund may borrow from banks or other financial institutions for temporary or emergency purposes (including, among others, financing repurchases of the Notes and tender offers), in an amount of up to an additional 5% of its total assets.

The Fund may issue preferred stock, debt securities and other forms of leverage to the extent that immediately after their issuance, the value of the Fund's total assets less all the Fund's liabilities and indebtedness which are not represented by preferred stock, debt securities, or other forms of leverage being issued or already outstanding, is equal to or greater than 200% of the aggregate par value of all outstanding preferred stock (not including any accumulated dividends or other distributions attributable to such preferred stock) and the total amount outstanding of debt securities and other forms of leverage.

9. Tax Basis of Distributions and Components of Distributable Earnings (Accumulated Losses)

During the year, there were no reclassification of gains and losses related to mortgage-backed security paydowns or reclassifications of swap periodic collections, therefore, the net investment income for tax purposes equals the net investment income per book.

The amount of net unrealized appreciation/(depreciation) and the cost of investment securities for tax purposes was as follows:

Cost of investments for tax purposes	$ 4,352,734
Gross appreciation	583,142
Gross depreciation	-
Net appreciation/(depreciation)	$ 583,142

The Fund's policy, as stated in the Prospectus, is to distribute substantially all net investment income. In order to maintain a stable level of dividends, however, the Fund may at times pay more or less than the net investment income earned in a particular year.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022, the Fund had distributed from ordinary income $130,916 for tax purposes. The undistributed net investment income at March 31, 2022, was as follows:

The undistributed net investment income and components of total distributable earnings (accumulated losses) on a tax basis at March 31, 2022 were as follows:

Undistributed net investment income for tax purposes at the end of the period	$ 293,251
Accumulated net realized loss from investment	(17,194,900)
Unrealized net depreciation from investment	583,142

10. Risks and Uncertainties

The Fund is exposed to various types of risks, such as geographic concentration, industry concentration, non-diversification, interest rate, and credit risks, among others.

Puerto Rico Risk. The Fund is exposed to certain risks resulting from the reduced geographic diversification of its portfolio. The Fund's assets are invested primarily in securities of Puerto Rico issuers. Consequently, the Fund in general is more susceptible to economic, political, regulatory or other factors adversely affecting issuers in Puerto Rico than an investment company that is not so concentrated in Puerto Rico issuers. In addition, securities issued by the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or its instrumentalities are affected by the central government's finances. That includes, but is not limited to, general obligations of Puerto Rico and revenue bonds, special tax bonds, or agency bonds. Over the past few years, many Puerto Rico government bonds as well as the securities issued by several Puerto Rico financial institutions have been downgraded as a result of several factors, including without limitation, the downturn experienced by the Puerto Rico economy and the strained financial condition of the Puerto Rico government. Currently, the Puerto Rico bond market is experiencing a period of volatility, with Puerto Rico bonds trading at historically lower prices and higher yields.

Non-Diversification Risk. A relatively high percentage of the Fund's assets may be invested in obligations of a limited number of Puerto Rico or other issuers. Consequently, the Fund's net asset value and its yield may increase or decrease more than that of a more diversified investment company as a result of changes in the market's assessment of the financial condition and prospects of such Puerto Rico issuers. The Fund may also be more susceptible to any single economic, political, or regulatory occurrence in Puerto Rico than a more widely diversified investment company.

Interest Rate Risk. Interest rate risk is the risk that interest rates will rise, so that the value of the securities issued by the Fund or the Fund's investments will fall. Current low long-term rates present the risk that interest rates may rise and that as a result, the Fund's investments will decline in value. Also, the Fund's yield will tend to lag behind changes in prevailing short-term interest rates. In addition, during periods of rising interest rates, the average life of certain types of securities may be extended because of the right of the issuer to defer payments or make slower than expected principal payments. This may lock in a below market interest rate, increase the security's duration (the estimated period until the security is paid in full) and reduce the value of the security. This is known as extension risk. The Fund is subject to extension risk. Conversely, during periods of declining interest rates, the issuer of a security may exercise its option to prepay principal earlier than scheduled in order to refinance at lower interest rates, forcing the Fund to reinvest in lower yielding securities. This is known as prepayment risk. Prepayment risk applies also to the securities issued by the Fund, to the extent they are redeemable by the Fund. The Fund is subject to prepayment risk. This tendency of issuers to refinance debt with high interest rates during periods of declining interest rates may reduce the positive effect of declining interest rates on the market value of the Fund's securities. Finally, the Fund's use of leverage by the issuance of preferred stock, debt securities, and other instruments may increase the risks described above.

Credit Risk. Credit risk is the risk that debt securities or preferred stock will decline in price or fail to make dividend or interest payments when due because the issuer of the security experiences a decline in its financial condition. The securities issued by the Fund and the Fund's investments are both subject to credit risk. The risk is greater in the case of securities that are rated below investment grade or rated in the lowest investment grade category.

Risks of Repurchase and Reverse Repurchase Agreements. The Fund may engage in reverse repurchase agreements, which are transactions in which the Fund sells a security to a counterparty and agrees to buy it back at a specified time and price in a specified currency. Reverse repurchase agreements involve the risk that the buyer of the securities sold by the Fund might be unable to deliver the securities when the Fund seeks to repurchase them and may be unable to replace the securities or only at a higher cost. If the buyer of securities under a reverse repurchase agreement files for bankruptcy or becomes insolvent, the buyer may receive an extension of time to determine whether to enforce the Fund's obligation to repurchase the securities, and the Fund's use of the proceeds of the reverse repurchase agreement may be severely restricted during that extension period. The Fund may also engage in repurchase agreements, which are transactions in which the Fund purchases a security from a counterparty and agrees to sell it back at a specified time and price in a specified currency. If a repurchase agreement counterparty defaults, the Fund may suffer time delays and incur costs or possible losses in connection with the disposition of the securities underlying the repurchase agreement. In the event of a default, instead of the contractual fixed rate of return, the rate of return to the Fund will depend on intervening fluctuations of the market values of the underlying securities and the accrued interest thereon. In such an event, the Fund would have rights against the counterparty for breach of contract with respect to any losses resulting from those market fluctuations.

Illiquid Securities. Illiquid securities are securities that cannot be sold within a reasonable period of time, not to exceed seven days, in the ordinary course of business at approximately the amount at which the Fund has valued the securities. There presently are a limited number of participants in the market for certain Puerto Rico securities or other securities or assets that the Fund may own. That and other factors may cause certain securities to have periods of illiquidity. Illiquid securities include, among other things, securities subject to legal or contractual restrictions on resale that hinder the marketability of the securities. Certain of the securities in which the Fund intends to invest, such as shares of preferred stock, may be substantially less liquid than other types of securities in which the Fund may invest. Illiquid securities may trade at a discount from comparable, more liquid investments.

There are no limitations on the Fund's investment in illiquid securities. The Fund may also continue to hold, without limitation, securities or other assets that become illiquid after the Fund invests in them. To the extent the Fund owns illiquid securities or other illiquid assets, the Fund may not be able to sell them easily, particularly at a time when it is advisable to do so to avoid losses.

Valuation Risk. There may be few or no dealers making a market in certain securities owned by the Fund, particularly with respect to securities of Puerto Rico issuers including, but not limited to, investment companies. Dealers making a market in those securities may not be willing to provide quotations on a regular basis to the Investment Adviser. It may therefore be particularly difficult to value those securities. When market quotations for securities held by the Fund are not readily available from any such independent dealers, the Administrator is responsible for obtaining quotations for such securities from various sources, including the Dealers. As a result, the interests of the Dealers may conflict with those of the Fund as to the price and other terms of transactions among them.

Special Risks of Hedging Strategies. The Fund may use a variety of derivatives instruments including securities options, financials futures contracts, options on futures contracts and other interest rate protection transactions such as swap agreements, to attempt to hedge its portfolio of assets and enhance its return. In particular, the Fund generally uses derivative instruments to hedge against variations in the borrowing cost of the Fund's leverage program. Successful use of most derivatives instruments depends upon the Investment Adviser's ability to predict movements of the overall securities and interest rate markets. There is no assurance that any particular hedging strategy adopted will succeed or that the Fund will employ such strategy with respect to all or any portion of its portfolio. Some of the derivative strategies that the Fund may use to enhance its return are riskier than its hedging transactions and have speculative characteristics. Such strategies do not attempt to limit the Fund's risk of loss.

SEC Rule 18f-4. The SEC has adopted a new rule to regulate the use of derivatives by registered investment companies. The rule limits the ability of the Fund to invest or remain invested in covered call options, to the extent that covered call options are deemed to involve derivatives. From its compliance date going forward, the rule also will limit the Fund's ability to utilize reverse repurchase agreements. The compliance period for Rule 18f-4 commences August 19, 2022.

Coronavirus and Public Health Emergencies. Coronavirus and Public Health Emergencies. As of the date of this report, there is an outbreak of a novel and highly contagious form of coronavirus (COVID-19) that has resulted in numerous disruptions in financial markets leaving general concern and uncertainty. As COVID-19 continues to spread and mutate, the potential impacts, including a global, regional or other economic recession, are increasingly uncertain and difficult to assess. The extent of the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, or any public health emergency on the operational and financial performance of the Fund will depend on many factors, including the duration and scope of such public health emergency, the extent of any related travel advisories and restrictions implemented, the impact of such public health emergency on overall supply and demand, goods and services, investor liquidity, consumer confidence and levels of economic activity and the extent of its disruption to important global, regional and local supply chains and economic markets, all of which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted. The effects of such a public health emergency may materially and adversely impact the value and performance of the Fund's investments as well as the ability of the Fund to source, manage and divest investments and achieve its investment objectives, all of which could result in significant losses to the Fund. In addition, the operations of each of the Fund, its investments and the Investment Advisers may be significantly impacted, or even halted, either temporarily or on a long-term basis, as a result of government quarantine and curfew measures, voluntary and precautionary restrictions on travel or meetings and other factors related to a public health emergency, including its potential adverse impact on the health of the Fund's or the Investment Advisers' personnel.

11. Commitments and Contingencies

The Fund, its Board of Directors, UBSFS, and UBSTC are subject to legal proceedings, claims, and litigation arising in the ordinary course of business. While the outcome of these matters is currently not determinable, management does not expect that the ultimate outcome of these matters will have a material adverse effect on the Fund's financial position, results of operations or cash flows. Management of UBSFS and UBSTC have informed the Fund of its belief that the resolution of such matters is not likely to have a material adverse effect on the ability of UBS Asset Managers of Puerto Rico and UBSTC to perform under their respective contracts with the Fund.

On February 5, 2014, a shareholder derivative action was filed in Puerto Rico Commonwealth court against the Fund, UBS Financial Services Inc., UBSFS, UBSTC, and all current and certain former Fund directors, alleging that the Fund suffered hundreds of millions of dollars in losses due to alleged mismanagement, concealment of conflicts of interest, and improper recommendations by certain defendants to retail customers to use credit lines to purchase Fund shares. On May 5, 2015, the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss. The Puerto Rico Court of Appeals and the Puerto Rico Supreme Court denied defendants' petitions for leave to appeal that decision. On August 24, 2016, defendants answered the complaint. In 2021, the parties reached an agreement to settle this matter for $15 million, subject to court approval. The Fund will record its allocable share of the settlement once all contingencies are resolved and the gain is realizable.

12. Indemnifications

In the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of indemnification clauses. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown. However, the Fund has not had prior claims or losses for indemnification and expects the risk of loss to be remote.

13. Subsequent Events

Events and transactions from April 1, 2022 through May 27, 2022 (the date the financial statements were available to be issued) have been evaluated by management for subsequent events. Management has determined that there were no material events that would require adjustment to or additional disclosure in the Fund's financial statements through this date, except as disclosed below.

Dividends:

On April 30, 2022, the Board of Directors, acting through the Dividend Committee, declared an ordinary net investment income dividend of $0.00708 per common share, totaling $10,910 and payable on May 10, 2022, to common shareholders of record as of April 30, 2022.

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities of Tax-Free Fixed Income Fund VI for Puerto Rico Residents, Inc. (the "Fund"), including the schedule of investments, as of March 31, 2022, and the related statements of operations, changes in net assets, cash flows and financial highlights for the year then ended and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Fund at March 31, 2022, the results of its operations, the changes in its net assets, its cash flows and its financial highlights for the year then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

As part of our audit, we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.
