Upcoming CIO Livestreams: Latin America's opportunities, Colombia's defining moment

21 August 2025, 15:01 UTC, written by UBS Editorial Team

Rising tariffs, shifting politics, and economic uncertainty continue to reshape Latin America. In our upcoming CIO Livestreams in Spanish, UBS experts and regional voices will break down what this means for trade, markets, and Colombia's defining crossroads—and how these shifts could open opportunities while raising fresh risks for investors in the months ahead.

How is Latin America adapting to global market volatility? What opportunities can emerge from shifting trade and investment flows? How is Colombia's electoral cycle influencing its economic outlook?

Our upcoming CIO Livestreams in Spanish will provide timely perspectives on trade, politics, and markets across Latin America, including a dedicated session on Colombia's economic and political outlook.

These 30-minute sessions will feature leading UBS experts and regional thought leaders, offering insights into the evolving dynamics that could shape investment opportunities and risks.
