Important information

There are two sources of UBS research. Reports from the first source, UBS CIO Global Wealth Management, are designed for individual investors and are produced by UBS Global Wealth Management (which includes UBS Financial Services Inc. and UBS International Inc.). The second research source is UBS Group Research, whose primary business focus is institutional investors. The two sources operate independently and may therefore have different recommendations. The various research content provided does not take into account the unique investment objectives, financial situation or particular needs of any specific individual investor. If you have any questions, please consult your Financial Advisor. UBS Financial Services Inc. is a subsidiary of UBS AG and an affiliate of UBS International Inc.

About Our Wealth Management Services

As a firm providing wealth management services to clients, UBS Financial Services, Inc is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as an investment adviser and a broker-dealer, offering both investment advisory and brokerage services. Investment advisory services and brokerage services are separate and distinct, differ in material ways and are governed by different laws and separate agreements. It is important that investors understand the ways in which UBS conducts business, that they carefully read the agreements and disclosures that UBS provides to them about the products or services offered. A small number of UBS financial advisors are not permitted to offer advisory services to you, and can only work with investors directly as UBS broker-dealer representatives. Your financial advisor will let you know if this is the case and, if you desire advisory services, will refer you to another financial advisor who can help you. UBS' agreements and disclosures will inform investors about whether we and our financial advisors are acting in our capacity as an investment adviser or broker-dealer. For more information, please see www.ubs.com/workingwithus. In providing financial planning services, UBS may act as a broker-dealer or investment adviser, depending on whether we charge a fee for the service. The nature and scope of the services are detailed in the documents and reports provided to you as part of the service.

Important information and Disclosures

This document constitutes sales and education content, not a research report, and it is not developed or held to the standards applicable to independent research.

Purpose of this document: This report is provided for informational and educational purposes only. It should be used solely for the purposes of discussion with your UBS Financial Advisor and your independent consideration. UBS does not intend this to be fiduciary or best interest investment advice or a recommendation that you take a particular course of action.

Personalized recommendations or advice: If you would like more details about any of the information provided, or personalized recommendations or advice, please contact your UBS Financial Advisor.

Conflicts of interest: UBS Financial Services Inc. is in the business of establishing and maintaining investment accounts (including retirement accounts) and we will receive compensation from you in connection with investments that you make, as well as additional compensation from third parties whose investments we distribute. This presents a conflict of interest when we recommend that you move your assets to UBS from another financial institution or employer retirement plan, and also when we make investment recommendations for assets you hold at, or purchase through, UBS. For more information on how we are compensated by clients and third parties, conflicts of interest and investments available at UBS please refer to the 'Your relationship with UBS' booklet provided at ubs.com/relationshipwithubs, or ask your UBS Financial Advisor for a copy.

Important information about brokerage and advisory services: As a firm providing wealth management services to clients, UBS Financial Services Inc. offers investment advisory services in its capacity as an SEC-registered investment adviser and brokerage services in its capacity as an SEC-registered broker-dealer. Investment advisory services and brokerage services are separate and distinct, differ in material ways and are governed by different laws and separate arrangements. It is important that you understand the ways in which we conduct business and that you carefully read the agreements and disclosures that we provide about the products or services we offer. For more information, please review client relationship summary provided at ubs.com/relationshipssummary.

Important additional information applicable to retirement plan assets (including assets eligible for potential rollover, distribution or conversion): This information is provided for educational and discussion purposes and are not intended to be fiduciary or best interest investment advice or a recommendation that you take a particular course of action (including to roll out, distribute or transfer retirement plan assets to UBS). UBS does not intend (or agree) to act in a fiduciary capacity under ERISA or the Code when providing this educational information. Moreover, a UBS recommendation as to the advisability of rolling assets out of a retirement plan is only valid when made in a written UBS Rollover Recommendation Letter to you provided by your UBS Financial Advisor after a review of detailed information that you provide about your plan and that includes the reasons the rollover is in your best interest. UBS and your UBS Financial Advisor do not provide rollover recommendations verbally.

With respect to plan assets eligible to be rolled over or distributed, you should review the IRA Rollover Guide UBS provides at ubs.com/irainformation which outlines the many factors you should consider (including the management of fees and costs of your retirement plan investments) before making a decision to roll out of a retirement plan. Your UBS Financial Advisor will provide a copy upon request.

No tax or legal advice: UBS Financial Services Inc., its affiliates, and its employees do not provide tax or legal advice. You should consult with your personal tax and/or legal advisors regarding your particular situation.

Financial planning services: In providing financial planning services, we may act as a broker-dealer or investment adviser. When we act as investment adviser we charge a separate fee for the service and enter into a written agreement with you. The nature and scope of the services are detailed in the documents and reports provided to you as part of the service.

Insurance and related products: Insurance and annuity products are issued by unaffiliated third-party insurance companies and made available through insurance agency subsidiaries of UBS Financial Services Inc. Guarantees are based on the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company.

Long-term care insurance has certain exclusions, limitations, reduction of benefits, and terms under which a particular policy may be continued or discontinued. For costs and complete details of coverage, please contact your financial advisor.
